Dear Macey Erdman,

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the position of Head Volleyball Coach with the BrassFox team. With a solid background in coaching and a passion for developing athletes both on and off the court, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to the success of your program.

In my previous role as Head Coach at Springfield Elite Volleyball, I successfully led our team to three consecutive state championships, emphasizing skill development, teamwork, and sportsmanship.

My approach centers on building a positive culture where athletes feel empowered to grow their abilities. I have a proven track record of identifying individual strengths and weaknesses, tailoring training sessions to enhance performance, and fostering a competitive spirit.

Beyond the technical aspects of coaching, I prioritize communication and relationship-building. I believe that understanding each player's unique motivations and challenges is essential to fostering a cohesive and driven team.

My experience includes not only coaching but also mentoring athletes in leadership and resilience, ensuring they are well-prepared for challenges both in sports and life.

I am particularly drawn to the BrassFox team because of its commitment to excellence and community engagement. I am eager to contribute my expertise and passion for volleyball to help elevate the program to new heights. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my coaching philosophy aligns with your vision for the team.

Thank you for considering my application. I hope to bring my experience and dedication to the BrassFox team. I look forward to the possibility of discussing my application further.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]

Bowen, Sarah A. Levin, 2011-06-27 In Reclaiming the Game William Bowen and Sarah Levin disentangle the admissions and academic experiences of recruited athletes walk on athletes and other students In a field overwhelmed by reliance on anecdotes the factual findings are striking and sobering Anyone seriously concerned about higher education will find it hard to wish away the evidence that athletic recruitment is problematic even at those schools that do not offer athletic scholarships Thanks to an expansion of the College and Beyond database that resulted in the highly influential studies The Shape of the River and The Game of Life the authors are able to analyze in great detail the backgrounds academic qualifications and college outcomes of athletes and their classmates at thirty three academically selective colleges and universities that do not offer athletic scholarships They show that recruited athletes at these schools are as much as four times more likely to gain admission than are other applicants with similar academic credentials The data also demonstrate that the typical recruit is substantially more likely to end up in the bottom third of the college class than is either the typical walk on or the student who does not play college sports Even more troubling is the dramatic evidence that recruited athletes underperform they do even less well academically than predicted by their test scores and high school grades Over the last four decades the athletic academic divide on elite campuses has widened substantially This book examines the forces that have been driving this process and presents concrete proposals for reform At its core Reclaiming the Game is an argument for re establishing athletics as a means of fulfilling instead of undermining the educational missions of our colleges and universities
