

Church Welcome Speech

I want to take a moment to extend a very warm welcome to everyone who's visiting us for the first time this morning. Whether you're just having a look, or are searching out for a place to worship, we're delighted to have you here.

To give you some idea of what we're all about, I'll quickly sketch some of our foundational beliefs.

Our vision says this: Getting and growing people in relationship with Jesus.

So firstly, we're all about Jesus Christ. We believe that Jesus was who he said he was, the Son of God who came and died for our sins. So if this is your first time in church, we hope that get to know Him as we do, because He's truly what life is all about for us!

Secondly we're all about people. Every person who walks through our doors is important to us, so if you ever feel like just another number, we're doing something wrong and I give you permission to tell me about it.

As a group of God's people we care about you and your family and we're here not only to feed you spiritually, but to help in any way we can. We love doing it and it's why we exist!

Woman's Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 1922 Michigan Christian Advocate, 1893 The Women of the Suffrage Movement Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Jane Addams, Ida Husted Harper, Emmeline Pankhurst, Anna Howard Shaw, Millicent Garrett Fawcett, Alice Stone Blackwell, 2023-11-30 The Women of the Suffrage Movement presents an illuminating exploration of the diverse narratives and rhetorical strategies that powered the campaign for women's voting rights across two continents This anthology compiles speeches essays and letters showcasing an array of literary styles from impassioned oratory to incisive journalism The works underscore the multifaceted fight for gender equality emphasizing the collective struggle and intellectual rigor that characterized the suffrage movement Within this collection each piece serves as a testament to the spirit and determination of the era with some documents resonating profoundly through their eloquent calls to action and visionary ideals Bringing together monumental figures such as Elizabeth Cady Stanton Jane Addams and Emmeline Pankhurst this anthology is a portrayal of pioneering women from diverse backgrounds united by a singular mission Their writings are set against the cultural and historical backdrop of late 19th and early 20th century reform movements capturing both the shared and distinct perspectives that advanced the cause Their collective voices reflect not only the diversity within the suffrage movement but also the broader political and social changes of the times thereby enriching the reader's understanding of the complexities and triumphs involved Designed for enthusiasts of history gender studies and literature The Women of the Suffrage Movement offers a panoramic view of political and social advocacy It provides a unique window into the minds of trailblazers whose works continue to inspire and educate Readers are invited to explore this anthology for its rich historical context and the multitude of insights that each piece offers fostering a dialogue between past and present struggles for equality

Women and Ordination in the Christian Churches Ian Jones, Kirsty Thorpe, Janet Wootton, 2011-11-03 The growth of women's ordained ministry is one of the most remarkable and significant developments in the recent history of Christianity This collection of essays brings together leading contributors from both academic and church contexts to explore Christian experiences of ordaining women in theological sociological historical and anthropological perspective Key questions include How have national denominational and ecclesial cultures shaped the different ways in which women's ordination is debated and/or enacted What differences have women's ordained ministry and debates on women's ordination made in various church contexts What unfinished business remains in both congregational and wider ministry How have Christians variously conceived ordained ministry which includes both women and men How do ordained women and men work together in practice What have been the particular implications for female clergy And for male clergy What distinctive issues are raised by women's entry into senior ordained leadership positions How do episcopal and non episcopal traditions differ in this

Lutheran Woman's Work, 1912 The Christian Advocate, 1899 Asian Catholic Women Thao Nguyen, 2019-11-20 Studying the various movements among women in the Catholic Church in Asia the author argues that the preexisting male dominated church rooted in the colonial era is now being challenged to recentralize itself and exercises an inclusive and participatory ecclesiology in which women should become fuller members of the church and participate in the decision making processes of the church For only when the church in Asia discovers and recognizes the richness of women s potential leadership charisma and vision will it be able to witness to the Gospel values and fulfill its vision of mission in Asia The author shows that Asian Catholic women have played and continue to play a crucial role in designing and carrying out multiple areas of the church s ministries that men failed to do Furthermore the author shows that through the interactions and dialogue with Asian bishops in recent decades Asian Catholic women have gradually influenced the Asian bishops consciousness of women s issues and concerns Messenger and Visitor ,1919 Missionary Seer ,1919
