around us Don t be misled this is not a book about food For the most part Cox considers these sauces as the basis for stories that equal fun lessons from God She says these sauces often leak into our lives in the guise of stories that are equipping us to live not only in our present but also in our future In the book Saucy Southern Stories Cox shares the zesty sauces the Lord has generously poured onto her quirky tomboy life She believes He wants her to impart her personal musings about life and family for His glory and to make a difference in other people s lives In these true saucy tales filled with gumball machines bling and softball Cox shares what she has learned about being fearless in pursuing your dreams If the reader is paying attention they will see biblical truths in each heartfelt recounting As a self acclaimed klutz who runs too fast Cox says we should learn to take life in stride laugh when we can and always rely on the Lord for help Fanfiction as Queer Healing Alice M. Chapman-Kelly, 2024-10-31 Exploring the phenomenon of Femslash fanfiction fan narratives that bring together heterosexual female characters from mainstream media and fiction this book analyses fan authored works as forms of literature worthy of studying at length It examines the anti-racist feminist sapplic fan works produced in response to white supremacist heteronormative queerbaiting mainstream fantasy and argues that they represent a significant site of queer healing for marginalised audience members Focusing on the Swan Queen fandom where fans pair the white trash heroine Emma Swan and the villainous Latina Evil Queen Regina Mills from ABC s hit show Once Upon a Time Alice Kelly redresses the widespread academic neglect of queer female fandoms and responds to urgent calls to diversify fan and fantasy scholarship With reference to complex theoretical subjects such as ethnography sociology psychology and decolonial queer film and media studies the book also delves into the alternative timescales on which gueer female and gendergueer fan authorship runs offers intriguing insights into fanfiction narrative structures and tackles the issues of broader fandom representation and contextualization Making the case that fan texts deserve attention in the academy Kelly shows how some of the most prolific fan works have the ability to enact colour reparation and a reclamation of memory fantasy romance maternity childhood parenting and magic These fictions serve fan communities as a whole through intersectional challenges to the power dynamics of the source text and within the fandom itself and as the book demonstrates offer attendant validation to fantasy fans who have been repeatedly told that the genre is not for them Henry and Violet Michelle Zink, 2018-05-08 Henry and Violet finally have a chance to be alone Granted it s on a school field trip but with some clever planning and strategic maneuvering they can orchestrate their own adventure in New York City a fairytale land in its own right While they search for a treasured item that once belonged to Violet's father they are met with obstacles they could never have predicted What they thought would be a romantic getaway ends up being a true test of their relationship The question remains Are they destined for a happily ever after History and Culture of Haiti NICOLE JEAN-LOUIS, 2012-09-29 My name is Nicole Jean Louis My maiden name is Nicole Faublas I was born in Port au Prince Haiti When I was nine years old my grandfather Luc Beauboeuf inspired me to discover my artistic talent Every sketch I ve made was greeted with abundant praises by my grandfather Draw me some more he would say to me Every day after school I would rush to draw more and more for him Then he would help me with my math problems In my early schooling at Sacred Heart my favorite subjects were Math and Drawing As an artist I love to incorporate Geometry and Physics in my drawings as much as I can For example when I paint my landscape I want to align the horizon with the sea level as straight as possible In Haiti we were five siblings growing up Gladys Nicole myself Micheline Edith and Serge Faublas our only brother One day my father Jean Faublas gathered us all to go hiking in a mountain surrounding Port au Prince The mountain s name is Morne de l Hopital My father told us that we would go to the top where there is a hotel at Boutilier This was a memorable experience We met farmers working on the fields Some farmers build terraces We met women descending the mountain with baskets on their heads loaded of farm products The women wore blue denim dresses with a colorful piece of cloth wrapped around their waist There were naked children playing by their thatch houses At the age of ten it was fascinating for me to see the children s skin and hair of similar color red brown like the soil The air smelled like Haitian soda In the late 1955 s era the mountain sides located near Port au Prince were not constructed They were invaded by outsiders as in this modern day era In 1964 my whole family migrated to Zaire Africa to flee from the Duvalier Regime I spent a year in Zaire completing my terminal secondary class Then my father sent me to Hampton Virginia I attended Hampton Institute presently known as Hampton University majoring in Biochemistry I spoke little English The following year I stayed in New York with my older sister Gladys I did not pursue Art in college Instead I choose Science After many intermissions e g wedding travel birth I finally received a Bachelors in Science degree at Hunter College in 1978 From 1978 to 2007 I worked in Chemistry at different hospitals in the Bronx North Central Bronx Hospital Einstein Jacobi and Montefiore Hospital I painted occasionally for dear friends my sisters and brother my granddaughter Guenett Three 2 Generations painting I also painted for my niece s and nephew s wedding presents and for decors in my new house When I retired in 2007 my husband and I went to live in Jacmel Haiti his hometown Jacmel is a picturesque town by the beaches Its environment inspired me to take my brushes again Painting became my favorite past time From 2007 to 2010 I painted over thirty paintings I embrace all styles landscape personalized portrait every day occurrence folkloric dance history Haiti that I know before the earthquake of January 2010 will be beautiful again I have to display Haiti s panoramic scenery everyday life and its historic events such as Ceremony of Bois Caiman 1791 Mad Dogs chasing fugitive slaves I have to exhibit some of Haiti's heroic figures for example Toussaint Louverture and Jean Jacques Dessalines My book is mostly about visual art Visual art depicts everything that the eyes can see without embellishment Reality is represented faithfully truthfully and accurately Visual art is objectively real My book illustrates Haiti s history and culture through visual art Haiti has a unique and glorious history History is powerful and should be protected Haiti is a country full of resilience Documenting Haitian history and culture through art is my passion It is important to instruct the young so they can make educated judgment by learning from the past I Gender and Media Tonny

Krijnen, Sofie Van Bauwel, 2015-06-19 Why do some TV genres have the label feminine or masculine Why do we worry about boys playing video games too much while girls play just as often Is the TV show Sex and the City empowering or not Why are recent television shows like Desperate Housewives post feminist television Gender and Media explores these and other complex questions by offering a critical overview of the contemporary debates and discussions surrounding gender and mediated communication and by providing student s with an overview of the current academic research on these topics The book is divided into three parts representing producing and consuming with each section made up of three chapters The first chapter of each section attempts to answer the most basic questions. Who is represented Who produces what and Who consumes what The second chapter of each section draws attention to the complexity of the relationship between gender and media concentrating on the why The third and final chapter of each section addresses the latest debates in the fields of media and gender adding a vital layer of understanding of the topic at hand This process is aided by text boxes which provide some additional information on the most important concepts and topics and exercises which help bridge the gap between theory and everyday life media practices This will be an ideal textbook for students studying gender and media and for general courses on gender studies sociology cultural studies and women s studies Utterly Other Discourse Ellen G. Friedman, Richard Martin, 1995 The British novelist and critic Christine Brooke Rose born 1923 is increasingly being regarded as one of the most significant writers of the contemporary period In her dozen novels she has explored themes as diverse as biligualism as a metaphor for alienation and the influence of computer technology on the humanities As these themes suggest Brooke Rose is sometimes perceived as a difficult writer especially given the dazzling virtuosity of the linguistic wordplay that enlivens her later novels Utterly Other Discourse a phrase from her 1984 novel Amalgamemnon provides a valuable introduction to her work in fifteen essays some previously published some written for this book scholars from America England and Europe examine her work from a variety of critical angles
