Western Civilization - Since 1500 + Mindtap History, 1 Term 6 Months Printed Access Card, The Patchwork of World History in Texas High Schools Stephen Jackson, 2022-11-30 This book traces the historical development of the World History course as it has been taught in high school classrooms in Texas a populous and nationally influential state over the last hundred years Arguing that the course is a result of a patchwork of competing groups and ideas that have intersected over the past century with each new framework patched over but never completely erased or replaced the author crucially examines themes of imperialism Eurocentrism and nationalism in both textbooks and the curriculum more broadly The first part of the book presents an overview of the World

History course supported by numerical analysis of textbook content and public documents while the second focuses on the depiction of non Western peoples and persistent narratives of Eurocentrism and nationalism It ultimately offers that a more global accurate and balanced curriculum is possible despite the tension between the ideas of professional world historians who often de center the nation state in their quest for a truly global approach to the subject and the historical core rationale of state sponsored education in the United States to produce loyal citizens Offering a new conceptual understanding of how colonial themes in World History curriculum have been dealt with in the past and are now engaged with in contemporary times it provides essential context for scholars and educators with interests in the history of education curriculum studies and the teaching of World History in the United States

American West Karen R. Jones, 2009-03-21 The American West used to be a story of gunfights glory wagon trails and linear progress Historians such as Frederick Jackson Turner and Hollywood movies such as Stagecoach 1939 and Shane 1953 cast the trans Mississippi region as a frontier of epic proportions where savagery met civilization and boys became men During the late 1980s this old way of seeing the West came under heavy fire Scholars such as Patricia Nelson Limerick and Richard White forged a fresh story of the region a new vision of the West based around the conquest of peoples and landscapes This book explores the bipolar world of Turner s Old West and Limerick s New West and reveals the values and ambiguities associated with both historical traditions Sections on Lewis and Clark the frontier and the cowboy sit alongside work on Indian genocide and women s trail diaries Images of the region as seen through the arcade Western Hollywood film and Disney theme parks confirm the West as a symbolic and contested landscape Tapping into popular fascination with the Cowboy Hollywood movies the Indian Wars and Custer s Last Stand the authors show the reader how to
