unspoken Josef meets his wife Kveta before the Second World War at a public lecture on Hittite culture Kveta chooses to marry Josef over their mutual friend Hynek but when her husband is later arrested and imprisoned for an unnamed crime Kveta gives herself to Hynek in return for help and advice The author explores the complexities of what is not spoken what cannot be said the repercussions of silence after an ordeal the absurdity of forgotten pain and what it is to be an outsider In Zmekal's tale told not chronologically but rather as a mosaic of events time progresses unevenly and unpredictably as does one's understanding The saga belongs to a particular family but it also exposes the larger ongoing struggle of postcommunist Eastern Europe to come to terms with suffering when catharsis is denied Reporting from a fresh multicultural perspective Zmekal makes a welcome contribution to European literature in the twenty first century Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book's first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book The Pacific Coast Musician, 1927 British Medical Journal, 1927 Music was not Enough Bob Wilber, 1987-12-01 The Altered Book Scrapbook Susan Ure, 2006 Presents step by step instructions for turning existing books into personal inspired scrapbooks that reflect different themes and meanings with tips for every stage of the process Make Mother Proud Thomas Parker, 2004-07 Make Mother Proud the second Adam Graham adventure takes us into the mind of a cunning diabolical serial killer Adam a local school superintendent is drawn into police efforts to stop this killer His background in education intelligence and anger over the death of several young female teachers drives him in his efforts to find the psychopath responsible A stunning tale of murder and romance rich with the local color of the American Southwest this is a story as mysterious varied and opulent as the desert in which it is set Bookbinding & Book Production, 1927
