What Are The Similarities Of Funza Lusha:

Democracy and Decency Paul R. Carr, P. L. Thomas, Brad J. Porfilio, Julie A. Gorlewski, 2016-02-01 Democracy can mean a range of concepts covering everything from freedoms rights elections governments processes philosophies and a panoply of abstract and concrete notions that can be mediated by power positionality culture time and space Democracy can also be translated into brute force hegemony docility compliance and conformity as in wars will be decided on the basis of the needs of elites or major decisions about spending finite resources will be the domain of the few over the masses or people will be divided along the lines of race ethnicity class religion etc because it is advantageous for maintaining exploitative political systems in place to do so Often these frameworks are developed and reified based on the notion that elections give the right to societies or segments of societies to install regimes institutions and operating systems that are then supposedly legitimated and rendered infinitely just because formal power resides in the hands of those dominating forces This book is interested in advancing a critical analysis of the hegemonic paradigm described above one that seeks higher levels of political literacy and consciousness and one that makes the connection with education What does education have to do with democracy How does education shape influence impinge on impact negate facilitate and or change the context contours and realities of democracy How can we teach for and about democracy to alter and transform the essence of what democracy is and importantly what it should be This book advances the notion of decency in relation to democracy and is underpinned by an analysis of meaningful critically engaged education Is it enough to be kind nice generous and hopeful when we can also see signs of rampant entrenched and debilitating racism sexism poverty violence injustice war and other social inequalities If democracy is intended to be a legitimating force for good how does education inform democracy What types of knowledge experience analysis and being are helpful to bring about newer more meaningful and socially just forms of democracy Throughout some twenty chapters from a range of international scholars this book includes three sections Constructing Meanings for Democracy and Decency Justice for All as Praxis and Social Justice in Action for Democracy Decency and Diversity International Perspectives The underlying thread that is interwoven through the texts is a critical reappraisal of normative hegemonic interpretations of how power is infused into the educational realm and importantly how democracy can be re situated and re formulated so as to more meaningfully engage society and education

Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Marcina Singh, 2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa s evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book s critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work

Going to University. The Influence of Higher Education on the Lives of Young South Africans Jennifer Case, Delia Marshall, 2018-02-09 Around the world more young people than ever before are attending university Student numbers in South Africa have doubled since democracy and for many families higher education is a route to a better future for their children But alongside the overwhelming demand for higher education questions about its purposes have intensified Deliberations about the curriculum culture and costing of public higher education abound from student activists academics parents civil society and policy makers We know from macro research that South African graduates generally have good employment prospects But little is known at a detailed level about how young people actually make use of their university experiences to craft their life courses And even less is known about what happens to those who drop out This accessible book brings together the rich life stories of 73 young people six years after they began their university studies It traces how going to university influences not only their employment options but also nurtures the agency needed to chart their own way and to engage critically with the world around them The book offers deep insights into the ways in which public higher education is both a private and public good and it provides significant conclusions pertinent to anyone who works in and cares about universities

States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat, Amandine Le Bellec, Lucas Puygrenier, 2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism xenophobia sexism homophobia as well as ethnic and class based discriminations It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts the education and health care systems the regulation of work and of procreation rights and institutions in charge of granting asylum The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action

Critical Reflections on Teacher Education in South Africa Labby Ramrathan, Suriamurthe Maistry, Sylvan Blignaut, 2024-06-19 This edited volume focuses on Curriculum scholars critical reflections on teacher education TE within South Africa to offer insights into critical considerations for the socio economic transformational social and environmental justice and decolonization challenges that the country faces Much of the literature on teacher education takes on a policy and practice focus to the exclusion of deep and fundamental curriculum questions on what is teacher education for for whom where and who decides Within South Africa the Minimum Requirements for Teacher Education Qualification MRTEQ forms the official policy that informs teacher education curriculum and certification to become a teacher This volume raises critical and complicated questions for teacher educators and curriculum scholars to inspire a deeper understanding of teacher education beyond a set of parochial policy prescribed modules courses that one needs to take to become a professional teacher

Contextualising Rural Education in South African Schools ,2023-04-03 South Africa s democratic government inherited a divided and unequal system of education Under apartheid South Africa had nineteen different educational departments separated by race language geography and ideology This education system prepared learners in different ways for the positions they were expected to occupy in social economic and political life under apartheid and was funded and resourced in ways that favoured white people and disadvantaged black people who remain in the working class The newly elected democratic government in 1994 laid a foundation for a single national education system Twenty five years after the dawn of democracy education is still in a parlous state in many communities in South Africa but it is in the rural areas mainly in the former homelands that learners are most disadvantaged Contributors are Olufemi Timothy Adigun Oluwatoyin Ayodele Ajani Alan Bhekisisa Buthelezi Joyce Phikisile Dhlamini Bongani Thulani Gamede Samantha Govender Lawrence Kehinde Nontobeko Prudence Khumalo Primrose Ntombenhle Khumalo Azwidohwi Philip Kutame Manthekeleng Linake Sive Makeleni Nkhensani Maluleke Bothwell Manyonga Mncedisi Christian Maphalala Takalani Mashau Hlengiwe Romualda Mhlongo Rachel Gugu Mkhlasibe Dumisani Wilfred Mncube Nicholas Tumelo Mollo Ramashego Shila Mphahlele Fikile Mthethwa Grace Matodzi Muremela Edmore Mutekwe Nokuthula Hierson Ndaba Clever Ndebele Thandiwe Nonkululeko Ngema Phiwokuhle Ngubane Sindile Ngubane Dumisani Nzima Livhuwani Peter Ramabulana and Maria Tsakeni

Rebels and Rage Adam Habib, 2019-03-01 Adam Habib the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa s campuses in this new book Habib charts the progress of the student protests that erupted on Wits University campus in late 2015 and raged for the better part of three years drawing on his own intimate involvement and negotiation with the students and also records university management and government responses to the events He critically examines the student movement and individual student leaders who emerged under the banners feesmustfall and Rhodesmustfall and debates how to achieve truly progressive social change in South Africa on our campuses and off This book is both an attempt at a historical account and a thoughtful reflection on the issues the protests kicked up from the perspective not only of a high ranking member of university management but also Habib as political scientist with a background as an activist during the struggle against apartheid Habib moves between reflecting on the events of the last three years on university campuses and reimagining the future of South African higher education Adam Habib the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa s campuses in this new book Habib charts the progress of the student protests that erupted on Wits University campus in late 2015 and raged for the better part of three years drawing on his own intimate involvement and negotiation with the students and also records university management and government responses to the events He critically examines the student movement and individual student leaders who emerged under the banners feesmustfall and Rhodesmustfall and debates how to achieve truly progressive social change in South Africa on our campuses and off This book is both an attempt at a historical account and a thoughtful reflection on the issues the protests kicked up from the perspective not only of a high ranking member of university management but also Habib as political scientist with a background as an activist during the struggle against apartheid Habib moves between reflecting on the events of the last three years on university campuses and reimagining the future of South African higher education

Using Evidence in Policy and Practice Ian Goldman, Mine Pabari, 2020-06-10

This book asks how governments in Africa can use evidence to improve their policies and programmes and ultimately to achieve positive change for their citizens Looking at different evidence sources across a range of contexts the book brings policy makers and researchers together to uncover what does and doesn t work and why Case studies are drawn from five countries and the ECOWAS west African region and a range of sectors from education wildlife sanitation through to government procurement processes The book is supported by a range of policy briefs and videos intended to be both practical and critically rigorous It uses evidence sources such as evaluations research synthesis and citizen engagement to show how these cases succeeded in informing policy and practice The voices of policy makers are key to the book ensuring that the examples deployed are useful to practitioners and researchers alike This innovative book will be perfect for policy makers practitioners in government and civil society and researchers and academics with an interest in how evidence can be used to support policy making in Africa The Open Access version of this book available at <https://doi.org/10.4324/9781003007043>

After Dawn Mcebisi Jonas, 2019-08-01 In October 2015 the Gupta brothers offered Mcebisi Jonas the position of minister of finance in exchange for R600 million Then deputy minister of finance Jonas turned down the bribe and a period of deep introspection followed for him How did we reach this point and what did the future hold for South Africa s democracy and the economy In After Dawn Mcebisi Jonas analyses the crisis at the heart of our current system which places politics at the centre of policymaking and implementation at the expense of growth In this important and authoritative book Jonas first unpacks and analyses the current badlands of the South African economic and political landscape In the second half Jonas proposes a series of workable and practical solutions for transitioning South Africa into a growing job creating country including Putting inclusive growth at the centre of economic policy rapidly expanding new technological capacities and knowledge to transition to a twenty first century economy expanding human capabilities at scale path changing trade offs to catalyse the next phase of South Africa s development nurturing a corruption free high performance state built on meritocracy and innovation and changing the nature of politics Time is of the essence and the window of opportunity is narrowing for all South Africans to work together towards the South Africa we all imagined was possible in 1994

South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa s leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people s future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis
