Radical Cities is a colorful journey through Latin America a crucible of architectural and urban innovation Learning from Bogotá Rachel Berney,2017-01-17 Once known as a drug capital and associated with kidnappings violence and excess Bogot Colombia has undergone a transformation that some have termed the miracle of Bogot Beginning in the late 1980s the city emerged from a long period of political and social instability to become an unexpected model of urban development through the redesign and revitalization of the public realm parks transportation and derelict spaces under the leadership of two public space mayors Antanas Mockus and Enrique Pe alosa the latter reelected in 2015 In Learning from Bogot Rachel Berney analyzes how these mayors worked to reconfigure the troubled city into a pedagogical one whose public spaces and urban policy have helped shape a more tolerant and aware citizenry Berney examines the contributions of Mockus and Pe alosa through the lenses of both spatial urban design and the city s history She shows how through the careful intertwining of new public space and transportation projects the reclamation of privatized public space and the refurbishment of dilapidated open spaces the mayors enacted an ambitious urban vision for Bogot without resorting to the failed method of the top down city master plan Illuminating the complex interplay between formal politics urban planning and improvised social strategies as well as the negative consequences that accompanied Bogot s metamorphosis Learning from Bogot offers significant lessons about the possibility for positive and lasting change in cities around the world

Intercultural Urbanism Dean Saitta,2020-07-23 Cities today are paradoxical They are engines of innovation and opportunity but they are also plagued by significant income inequality and segregation by ethnicity race and class These inequalities and segregations are often reinforced by the urban built environment the planning of space and the design of architecture This condition threatens attainment of wider social and economic prosperity In this innovative new study Dean Saitta explores questions of urban sustainability by taking an intercultural trans historical approach to city planning Saitta uses a largely untapped body of knowledge the archaeology of cities in the ancient world to generate ideas about how public space housing and civic architecture might be better designed to promote inclusion and community while also making our cities more environmentally sustainable By integrating this knowledge with knowledge generated by evolutionary studies and urban ethnography including a detailed look at Denver Colorado one of America's most desirable and fastest growing destination cities but one that is also experiencing significant spatial segregation and gentrification Saitta's book offers an invaluable new perspective for urban studies scholars and urban planning professionals

City-making, Space and Spirituality

Stéphan de Beer, 2023-09-29 This book is about the soul of the city embodied in its spaces and people It traces dynamics in inner city neighbourhoods of South Africa's post apartheid capital Pretoria Viewing the city through its most vulnerable people and places it recognizes that urban space is never neutral and shaped by competing value frameworks The first part of the book invites planners city makers and ordinary urban citizens to consider a new self understanding reclaiming their agency in the city making process Through the metaphor of becoming like children planning practice is deconstructed and reimagined A praxis based methodology is presented cultivating four distinct moments of entering reading imagining and co constructing the city After deconstructing urban spaces and discourses the second part of the book explores a concrete spirituality and ethic of urban space It argues for a shift from planning as technocracy to planning as immersed participatory artistry opening up to the genius of space responsive to urban cries and joining to construct new soul full spaces Local communities and interconnected movements become embodiments of urban alternatives through resistance and reconstruction building on local assets animating local reclamations and weaving nets of hope that will span the entire city Providing a concrete methodology for city making that is rooted in a community based urban praxis this book will be of interest to urban planning researchers professional planners and designers and also grass root community developers or activists

Urban Comics

Dominic Davies, 2019-02-21 Urban Comics Infrastructure and the Global City in Contemporary Graphic Narratives makes an important and timely contribution both to comics studies and urban studies offering a decolonisation and reconfiguration of both of these already interdisciplinary fields With chapter length discussions of comics from cities such as Cairo Cape Town New Orleans Delhi and Beirut this book shows how artistic collectives and urban social movements working across the global South are producing some of the most exciting and formally innovative graphic narratives of the contemporary moment Throughout the author reads an expansive range of graphic narratives through the vocabulary of urban studies to argue that these formal innovations should be thought of as a kind of infrastructure This infrastructural form allows urban comics to reveal that the built environments of our cities are not static banal or depoliticised but rather highly charged material spaces that allow some forms of social life to exist while also prohibiting others Built from a formal infrastructure of grids gutters and panels and capable of volumetric multi scalar perspectives this book shows how urban comics are able to represent repair and even rebuild contemporary global cities toward more socially just and sustainable ends Operating at the intersection of comics studies and urban studies and offering large global surveys alongside close textual and visual analyses this book explores and opens up the fascinating relationship between comics and graphic narratives on the one hand and cities and urban spaces on the other

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Futures Robert C. Brears, 2023-01-13 While urban settlements are the drivers of the global economy and centres of learning culture and innovation and nations rely on competitive dynamic regions for their economic social and environmental objectives urban centres and regions face a myriad of challenges that impact the ways in which people live and work create wealth and interact and connect with places Rapid urbanisation is resulting in urban sprawl rising emissions urban poverty and high unemployment rates housing affordability issues lack of urban investment low urban financial and governance capacities rising inequality and urban crimes environmental degradation increasing vulnerability to natural disasters and so forth At the regional level low employment low wage growth scarce financial resources climate change waste and pollution and rising urban peri urban competition etc are impacting the ability of regions to meet socio economic development goals while protecting biodiversity The response to these challenges has typically been the application of inadequate or piecemeal solutions often as a result of fragmented decision making and competing priorities with numerous economic environmental and social consequences In response there is a growing movement towards viewing cities and regions as complex and sociotechnical in nature with people and communities interacting with one another and with objects such as roads buildings transport links etc within a range of urban and regional settings or contexts This comprehensive MRW will provide readers with expert interdisciplinary knowledge on how urban centres and regions in locations of varying climates lifestyles income levels and stages development are creating synergies and reducing trade offs in the development of resilient resource efficient environmentally friendly liveable socially equitable integrated and technology enabled centres and regions

The Amateur Andy Merrifield, 2017-05-23 Modern life is being destroyed by experts and professionals We have lost our amateur spirit and need to rediscover the radical and liberating pleasure of doing things we love In The Amateur thinker Andy Merrifield shows us how the many spheres of our lives work knowledge cities politics have fallen into the hands of box tickers bean counters and rule followers In response he corrals a team of independent thinkers wayward poets dabblers and square pegs who challenge the accepted wisdom Such figures as Charles Baudelaire Dostoevsky Edward Said Guy Debord Hannah Arendt and Jane Jacobs show us the way As we will see the amateur takes risks thinks the unthinkable and seeks independence and changes the world

Politics of Architecture in Contemporary Argentine Cinema Amanda Holmes, 2017-07-19 This book considers how architectural landmarks imagined buildings and urban landscapes take part in the production of meaning in contemporary Argentine cinema From the iconic Buenos Aires Obelisk to the Hilton International Hotel the shopping center to the caf and the Le Corbusier designed Curutchet House to the gated community architecture in these films evokes the political Tracing architecture's expression through six films produced since the 1990s Pizza birra faso Mundo gr a Nueve reinas La ni a santa La antena and El hombre de al lado Amanda Holmes studies how architecture in cinema elicits political memory underscores marginalization and class discrepancies creates nostalgia for neighborhoods and re evaluates existing communities Generously illustrated and carefully researched the book offers an in depth reading of key contemporary Argentine films and a fresh architectural approach to film analysis

Imminent Commons: Urban Questions for the Near Future Hyungmin Pai, Alejandro Zaera-Polo, 2022-02-04 The cities of the world stand at a crossroads Amidst radical social economic and technological transformations will the city become a driving force of creativity diversity and sustainability or will it be a mechanism of inequality despair and environmental decay At this critical moment where do the stakes lie and what are the agents of change From the time of its birth the city has been held together by the commons The book includes essays by Alejandro Zaera Hyungmin Pai Mainer Llaguno Nerea Calvillo Hyewon Lee Lindsay Bremner Alex Ivancic I aki Abalos Charles Waldheim David Gissen Carlo Ratti Daniele Belleri Antoine Pico Saskia Saseen

Adam Greenfield Jesse LeCavalier Philip Rode Duncan McLaren Julian Agyeman Gunter Pauli Gramazio and Kohler Mario Carpo Dirk E Hebel Marta H Wisniewska Felix Heisel Mitchell Joachim and Christian Hubert The first publication of the Seoul Biennale of Architecture and Urbanism 2017 proposes a framework that sets basic commons an evolving network of agencies resources and technologies as the critical issue in the move towards a sustainable and just urbanism It shows an exploration not of distant utopias but of the very near future because the emerging commons is changing the way we connect make move recycle sense and share and the way we manage air water energy and the earth Whether met with fear or hope they will very soon change the way we live in the city

Urbicide Fernando Carrión Mena,Paulina Cepeda Pico,2023-03-23 This book uses the reflection of academics specialized in the urban area of Latin America Europe and the United States to initiate a comparative debate of the different dynamics in which Urbicidio expresses itself The field or focal point of analysis that this publication approaches is the city but under a new critical perspective of inverse methodology to that has been traditional used It is about understanding the structural causes of self destruction to finally thinking better and then going from pessimism to optimism It is a deep look at the city from an unconventional entrance because it is about knowing and analyzing what the city loses by the action deployed by own urbanites both in the field of its production and in the field of its consumption This suppose that the city does not have an ascending linear sequential evolution in its development but neither in each of its parts in the improvement process showing the face that commonly not seen but others live The category used for this purpose is that of Urbicidio or the death of the city which contributes theoretically and methodologically to the knowledge of the city as well as to the design of urban policies that neutralize it In addition it is worth mentioning that the book has an inclusive view of the authors For this reason gender parity territorial representation and the presence of age groups have been sought
