How to Repair Old Time Radios Hallmark, 1979 The Zenith Trans-Oceanic John H. Bryant, Harold N. Cones, 1995

The previously untold story of the Zenith Trans Oceanic the world's most romantic and expensive series of portable radios. Long a companion of kings, presidents, transoceanic yachtsmen and world explorers, the Trans Oceanic was also carried into battle by American troops in three wars. Its great popularity in spite of a very high price can be laid at the feet of several generations of armchair travelers who used the shortwave capabilities of the Trans Oceanic as a window on the world. With access to the Zenith corporate archives and their long experience as radio enthusiasts and writers for both the popular and scholarly press, Professors Bryant and Cones present the engrossing stories of the development and use of the Trans Oceanic throughout its forty-year life. They present a wealth of never before published photographs, documents and information concerning these fascinating radios, their collection, preservation and restoration. Vintage Radios Tony Thompson, 2007

Since the 1920s the radio set has been an important part of most people's lives. In the thirties and forties the wireless was an important piece of furniture and a potent symbol of status. Beautifully made floor-standing and table-top sets in veneered wood and trendy bakelite became the focal points of living rooms up and down the land. After the war the emphasis began to change towards portability and the change from valves to transistors in the 1960s changed the radio into a more useful but far less interesting object. The book tells the collector and armchair wireless enthusiast everything he or she needs to know about classic radios from the 1920s to the end of the 1960s. All the important makes and models are discussed and the author also covers buying and selling, care and restoration and many other topics including foreign radios and radio-related ephemera. Illustrated with hundreds of colour photographs, this is the perfect collector's companion to the fascinating topic. AUTHOR: Tony Thompson is a former teacher who has been interested in radios all his life. He collects, repairs and services vintage radio websites and is the author of two books on the subject. 450 colour photographs. Radios Philip Collins, 1997
