

Treasures of the Texas Collection Texas Poetry

Hi! I'm your host, Robert Darden. Welcome to Treasures of the Texas Collection.

When speaking of his own profession as a poet, Joseph Brodsky said, "Poetry is rather an approach to things, to life, than it is typographical production." So today, we invite you to take a journey with us and spend a little time listening to how some of our fellow Texans have "approached" life.

We'll hear from well-known poets such as Red Steagall but also from a number of lesser-known talents. Writer Petra Carey is here today to share some of their works with us.

Welcome, Petra. What can you tell us about Texas poets and their works?

Thank you for having me today. One thing that can be said about Texas poetry is that it's diverse, reflecting a variety of cultures. But any Lone Star resident can relate to the poems because of the common Texan thread that runs throughout each, whether it's cowboy or Chicana poetry.

No matter our walk of life, we all know what it is to be Texan. Or so they say.

That's right, Bob.

You know, a political scientist once said that when people from the United States go to a foreign country and they're asked where they're from, they respond, "I'm from America." But ask Texans in a foreign country that same question, and they'll say, "I'm from Texas." There's a bit of pride and nationalism in the response; they expect foreigners to have some knowledge of the state. And the funny thing is, most of the time they do.

So today, there's no better place to start than with a poem by Peggy Lynch titled, "A True Texan."

Let's hear it.

Poetry Harriet Monroe,1925      Love Poems Roland Peaslee,2019-06-26 Inspired by the love and marriage to his beloved wife of 59 years Bonnie Roland Peaslee has recorded a lifetime of memories in this wonderful book of poetry Written over the course of their life together Roland shares his love and admiration for his wife and children Alan Brian Jay and Dian His poems capture the moments and joys they experienced together as husband and wife and as a family So journey with Roland as he shares nearly six decades of poetry written from a heart of love      Anthology of Magazine Verse for ... and Year Book of American Poetry ,1926      Getting Over the Color Green Scott Slovic,2001 Desert vistas are often deemed vacant inhospitable wastelands Don't suggest that to Joy Harjo Pat Mora or other contemporary southwestern writers In these arid stretches often devoid of green today's southwestern writers see pyrotechnic colors and Gothic shapes that excite and often overwhelm the imagination And they capture this excitement in words that fix these desert images in the minds of readers who may too often look at the world through green colored glasses This anthology of contemporary nature writing from the Greater Southwest brings together a host of writers including peers of Edward Abbey such as Charles Bowden and Ann Zwinger and representatives of a new generation of writers such as Rick Bass and Terry Tempest Williams The book is an eclectic blend of nonfiction and fiction field notes and poetry through which artists of diverse backgrounds both celebrate and illuminate the unique vitality and complexity of southwestern literature proving that green is only one of many colors on their palette The selections included here range all across the southwestern landscape and explore adventures in the wild topics in natural history living close to the land and efforts at conservation and restoration They clearly demonstrate that there is grace and beauty in this often maligned part of the world both in the human traditions that have developed in the region and in the natural features of the desert itself
