

Structure of a Text Response

There are three parts to a text response:

1. Introduction

- The text type, text and author
- Background information on the topic
- CONTENTION: a clear, concise response to the topic
- An indication of the main points to be taken up in the body paragraphs

2. Body

- Paragraph 1
- Paragraph 2
- Paragraph 3
- (Paragraph 4)

3. Conclusion

- A clear response to the topic
- A concise statement about your central argument
- A brief summary that draws together the main points of the essay

Introduction to the Literary Art of the Gospel of John Paul Jaesuk Jo, 2022-05-24 The Gospel of John is a magnificent book Intricate fabrics interweave its beautiful robe and its material is a finely twisted linen of many colors Throughout the history of the church interpreters have long been captivated by its loveliness and power Many modern interpreters however would not hesitate to call it puzzling confusing or ridden with riddles at least What is John is therefore a fascinating question that lingers During the last half century literary theories have been brought into the study of the Fourth Gospel with varying degrees of success New analytical lenses are cast over the Gospel to render its secrets but it feels as if only those who are initiated into its mystery have the knowledge Reading and rereading strategies are offered but the path out of the vast labyrinth is difficult to find The Gospel of John however surprisingly reads much like the Old Testament In fact its form is deeply imbued in the styles of Old Testament poetry narratives and prophets that when they are properly understood together John's message comes across clearly Taking a comprehensive view of the styles of the Old Testament this book takes you to see John in its grand design

Scheuermann,2022-07-26 This Workbook is a collection of exercises and case studies designed to serve as a companion to Reading Argumentative Texts Analytic Tools to Improve Understanding The exercises and case studies track each of the chapters of Reading and provide opportunities for students to hone their skills at using the analytic tools presented in Reading and to acquire additional analytic tools and concepts These tools are illustrated through the analysis of complete essays from the mass media speeches a sermon and passages from academic works The approach is flexible and practical and avoids academic jargon and specific theories of argumentation As is the case with Reading this Workbook is grounded in two principles First that the meaning of an argumentative text is to be found in the statements that constitute the argument itself in other statements that are more or less directly related to the argument and in the structure and context of the text Accordingly while this book discusses the analysis of arguments argument types and errors in argumentation fallacies it focuses equally on the other sources of meaning of a text Second there is no single authoritative reading of an argumentative text The interplay of these two premises informs the view that analyzing and understanding an argumentative text is an art and that within certain well defined parameters there are better and worse readings of a text and not right or wrong readings The principal sources of meaning discussed include 1 the structure of the text and so the book examines six types of introductions and teaches how to outline and summarize 2 key sentences phrases and words in a text so the book discusses ambiguity the difference between factual and normative statements irony and rhetoric 3 context intellectual social political cultural and physical context and 4 the logical connections between terms in an argument including the four different types of arguments fallacies and the distinction between necessary and sufficient conditions The book is designed to be used in late high school or early college critical reading critical thinking rhetoric or writing courses
