Quotes In To Kill A Mockingbird Chapter 9:

Confessions of a Streetwalker David L. McKenna, 2016-05-10 In 2005 my wife Jan and I moved into a condo along the shores of Lake Washington Even though I had served as President of Seattle Pacific University back in the 1970s I was unknown on the streets of the resort like village of Kirkland Washington Each morning Molly our Maltese puppy and I went across the street for her potty break and exercise Soon with Molly as the introducer I discovered a new world where strangers became friends through the connection of our dogs Later after two back surgeries Jan joined us on our daily walk down the street through the village and around the park by using a doggie stroller as a substitute for a walker The sight of the three of us walking down the street with Molly peering forward from her seat at the helm of the stroller became a phenomenon of its own on the streets of Kirkland Together we walked through an open door of learning and found that friendship based upon listening caring and giving is a grace that God reserves for plain people who walk daily and serve joyfully in common places

Unstoppable Gospel Gregg Matte,2015-10-27 The path of least resistance is seldom the path of greatest impact This is a truth that the apostles knew intrinsically but from which we the modern church seem to shy away They boldly proclaimed the Gospel in season and out of season We want to avoid risk avoid stepping on toes avoid any bad publicity that might come with going out on a limb But much like the first rockets to leave Earth s atmosphere giant leaps forward in God s kingdom don t come without a big vision and a great big dose of risk In Unstoppable Gospel pastor Gregg Matte calls readers to take up the task of the early church and go change the world He shows how using ordinary everyday people has been God s plan from the beginning and how we all have a part in that plan He shares many practical ways Christians can get involved in their churches and communities to take advantage of the countless opportunities God provides for us to make a lasting kingdom impact in our world
