Challenging the School Readiness Agenda in Early Childhood Education Miriam B. Tager, 2017-03-27 Challenging the normative paradigm that school readiness is a positive and necessary objective for all young children this book asserts that the concept is a deficit based practice that fosters the continuation of discriminatory classifications Tager draws on findings of a qualitative study to reveal how the neoliberal agenda of school reform based on high stakes testing sorts and labels children as non ready affecting their overall schooling careers Tager reflects critically on the relationship between race and school readiness showing how the resulting exclusionary measures perpetuate the marginalization of low income Black children from an early age Disrupting expected notions of readiness is imperative to ending practices of structural classism and racism in early childhood education Handbook of Response to

Intervention and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Paige C. Pullen, Michael J. Kennedy, 2018-10-04 Of the many issues facing special education and general education today it is difficult to imagine one more important or timely than response to intervention RTI Almost overnight RTI has become standard practice across the nation Unfortunately RTI remains ill defined falls far short of its evidence based practice goal is almost invariably misused and often results in more harm than good Nevertheless as a conceptual framework RTI has great potential for ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate evidence based instruction The mission of this handbook is to present a comprehensive and integrated discussion of response to intervention RTI and its relation to multi tiered systems of support MTSS in both special education and general education Although the two terms are currently used interchangeably distinct differences exist between them Therefore chapters are dedicated to distinguishing the two concepts RTI and MTSS and describing each one s unique role in both general and special education In addition the authors recommend a third term Multi Tiered Instruction to differentiate the practices related to the purpose of the specific intervention Tested Linda Perlstein, 2025-03-14 The pressure is on at schools across America In recent years reforms such as No Child Left Behind have created a new vision of education that emphasizes provable results uniformity and greater attention for floundering students Schools are expected to behave more like businesses and judged almost solely on the bottom line test scores To see if this world is producing better students Linda Perlstein immersed herself in a suburban Maryland elementary school The resulting portrait detailed human and truly thought provoking is marked by the same narrative gifts and expertise that made Not Much Just Chillin so illuminating The school once deemed a failure is now held up as an example of reform done right Perlstein explores the rewards and costs of that transformation through the experiences of the people who lived it Nine year olds meditate to activate their brains before exams and kindergartners write paragraphs Teachers attempt to address diverse needs at the same time they are expected to follow daily scripts and feel compelled to focus on topics that will be tested at the expense of those that won t The principal attempts to keep it all together in the face of immense challenges Perlstein provides the first detailed view of how new education policies are modified by human realities Tested will be talked about thought about written about and will almost certainly play an important role in the national debate as the federal education law come up for renewal Rural School Improvement in Developing Countries Yuchi Zhao, Jing Liu, 2024-09-06 This open access book examines the rural school improvement programs implemented in four developing countries including China Myanmar Uganda and Kenya It analyzes research questions such as problems faced by rural schools in these countries approaches or models adopted to improve these rural schools specific interventions to address the problems and their effectiveness and lessons learnt from
