Becoming Poetry Jay Rogoff, 2023-11-15 Winner of the Lewis P Simpson Award In Becoming Poetry Jay Rogoff closely inspects the work of two dozen poets his forebears and his contemporaries to reveal how their poetry achieves its impact upon readers His essays drawn from more than twenty years of literary criticism explore how the staying power of a poet's work and the likelihood of its enjoying a lasting identification with its creator depend on the skilled manipulation of poetic technique Considering how poetry can manifest a vividly conceived world of feeling and sensation Rogoff maintains that we understand and evaluate poets by the sum of their most persuasive inventive strategies including their attention to form The poet finally constructs a uniquely imagined universe and thus in the minds of readers becomes the poetry A model of practical criticism intended for enthusiasts at all levels Becoming Poetry demystifies how poetry operates on its audience to create a virtual affective experience of lasting power and value Happiness, Stability and Transcendence in Western Religion, Philosophy and Poetry Nili Alon Amit, 2021-09-23 This book follows in the footsteps of great thinkers on human happiness from the Hebrew Bible through Greek philosophy medieval mysticism early modern philosophy 19th century transcendentalism the 20th century Harlem Renaissance and early Hebrew poetry to contemporary writings As active participators in the ongoing process of creation we can amend the world and make it a stable safe place for all This can be done through curiosity and learning connecting with the divine and nature activism for the oneness of all or by the simple awareness of our significant standing as individuals and as a society in a unique and wonderful system of humanity and the divine The text includes primary sources on happiness in their original ancient languages Aramaic Hebrew and Greek along with their scholarly translations into English Modernism and Non-Translation Jason Harding, John Nash, 2019-10-24 This book explores the incorporation of untranslated fragments from various languages within modernist writing It studies non translation in modernist fiction poetry and other forms of writing with a principally European focus and addresses the following questions what are the aesthetic and cultural implications of non translation for modernist literature How did non translation shape the poetics and cultural politics of some of the most important writers of this key period This edited volume written by leading scholars of modernism explores American British and Irish texts alongside major French and German writers and the wider modernist recovery of Classical languages The chapters analyse non translation from the dual perspectives of both insider and outsider unsettling that false opposition and articulating in the process their individuality of expression and experience The range of voices explored indicates something of the reach and vitality of the matter of translation and specifically non translation across a selection of poetry fiction and non fictional prose while focusing on mainly canonical voices Together these essays seek to provoke and extend debate on the aesthetic cultural political and conceptual dimensions of non translation as an important yet hitherto neglected facet of modernism thus helping to re define our understanding of that movement It demonstrates the rich possibilities of reading modernism through instances of non translation

Contemporary Poetry , 2011 Five White Swans Lisanne Winslow, 2024-08-01 The ecopoetry in Five White Swans moves toward healing a broken humanity restoring the more than human family of creatures and protecting the geology of our earthly home by touching the core of the human heart This fresh and exuberant ecotheology and ecospirituality reveals that nature holds the gentle power to lead us into wellness and flourishing In the biology of these insightful lines readers may discover that their own ultimate happiness comes from a connection with others with the earth and with their own spiritual center This biocentric way of life is what forged our hominin ancestors success and it is time we return to our roots In this experiential poetry readers will find life abundant peace and the Spirit's guidance leading onward to new dimensions of the rich spirituality that nature has offered all along

Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us
