J. Klassen, 1967 Thirty Days to Better Board Members and Meetings Jerry W. Storz, 2022-12-12 Author Jerry W

Storz's experiences with board service and all things board governance goes back to his childhood watching his parents deal with the joys and struggles of service as church board members for a small church. Eventually he made a career out of working with faith-based organizations where he found that some board members knew their roles and responsibilities while others clearly did not understand. As a response to his observations, Storz presents Thirty Days to Better Board Members and Meetings intended for use as a devotional and discussion guide. He has studied faith-based board members' behavior and now offers both nuggets of truth from scripture and board governance tips that he has gathered over these last few years. What's more, he aims to bring the two together, allowing board members to learn and apply board principles and best practices so that they begin to see the true purpose of their board member service. Uplifting and practical, this devotional serves as a guide to board members of faith-based organizations to help them improve their leadership and service. "A Guide for Pastors, Leaders, and Congregations." Dr. Clinton Craig Hoggard, 2021-09-20. A Guide for Pastors, Leaders and Congregations: How to Grow a Congregation Spiritually and in Number through Preaching. By Dr. Clinton Craig Hoggard. A Guide for Pastors, Leaders and Congregations: How to Grow a Congregation Spiritually and in Number through Preaching is just that, a study in how to grow congregations through preaching, addressing such challenges as: How to make prospective members of the church feel more welcomed/accepted; How to welcome back lapsed members of the congregation who may feel detached from the congregation or church leadership; How to speak to the congregation using their voice with specific understanding to their needs and circumstance; By interviewing churchgoers, those who used to attend church and church leadership at Vine Memorial Baptist Church, all of whom provided up-close and personal information that speaks directly to the problems facing many congregations today. Hoggard was able to provide meaningful solutions to these issues and more. Berlin Fellowship Jane Holslag, 2013. Between 1961 and 1989 in East Germany, the Cold War border was crossed through the Berlin Fellowship, an ecumenical visitation program. Under the watchful eye of East Germany's security police, the Stasi, East German Christians welcomed guests from the US into their congregations and homes for an hour, an evening, or a weekend of discussion, shared meals, and worship. The voices of the other, through Eastern recollections and perspectives on this unique form of koinonia, reveal how fellowship can be missional and transformative. This book examines the intercultural history of the Berlin Fellowship during the Cold War. Series: ContactZone: Explorations in Intercultural Theology, Vol. 14. How to Survive Being a Presbyterian! Bob Reed, 2001-01-16. In this tongue-in-cheek celebration of the funny foibles of the Frozen Chosen, the 300-year-old Percy T. Presby declares Presbyterianism is a series of meetings occasionally interrupted by a worship service. The national drink of Presbyterian women is decaf coffee. Some Presbyterians believe that a jazz band is the Boston Pops. This Presby 101 handbook uses an advice format to describe Presbyterians by ostensibly addressing new members of the church. But it is also a humorous primer and survival manual for ALL people in the denomination. Gently skewering the history, worship habits, and endless committee meetings, it covers clothing, potluck dinners, and yes, sex, all from
