Panzina's Passion Teresa D. Patterson, 2011-03-26 Inexperienced sweet flower boutique owner Panzina Wilson thinks she has nothing in common with snobbish arrogant fashion designer Trevor Grant. For her it's a case of dislike at first sight the day he enters her shop. Tragedy throws the two of them together. Trevor helps Panzina through a time of grief and uncertainty and saves her flower boutique from foreclosure. During the course of getting to know him Panzina comes to the realization that she isn't and never has been in love with her fiancé Telvin Coney. Trevor has the love that she's been saving herself for. But catty model Marcia Forbes has her claws in him and she won't give him up without a fight. Trevor Grant fights hard to hide his instant attraction to Panzina Wilson by being rude and insulting during their first encounter. He isn't looking for love especially not in a woman as innocent and naïve as Panzina. When Fate intervenes and throws them together again and again Trevor chalks it up to divine intervention. He decides to prove to Panzina that he isn't the tyrant she's made him out to be. He helps her through a period of grief and rescues her flower boutique. By seeing Panzina through a difficult situation will he finally be able to accept his own personal loss. Or will the secret he's keeping thrust Panzina into the arms of another man.
