Ms Naidoo is a citizen of a war-torn country in Africa. She fled her country of birth and entered South Africa after a long journey. Ms Naidoo applies for asylum at the Department of Home Affairs in terms of section 21(1) of the Refugees Act 130 of 1998. Her application for asylum is rejected by the authorised refugee status determination officer without any input by Ms Naidoo. No reasons for the rejection were given, but it later transpired that the rejection was based on the informal notes of the refugee reception officer, working in the refugee reception office, responsible for issuing her with the asylum seeker permit. From these notes the impression might be gained that the decision had been influenced by certain irrelevant factors suggesting bias on the part of the administrator. The Refugees Act makes provision for review by the Standing Committee and appeal to the Appeal Board of a decision by a refugee status determination officer.

Answer the following questions and substantiate your answers:

Question 1

- 1.1 Briefly explain what an administrative-law relationship is. Do you think Ms Naidoo is a subject of an administrative-law relationship? (6)

An administrative-law relationship exists between two parties in an unequal relationship/vertical✓. One of the subjects is a person or body clothed in state authority/organ of state✓ who is able to exercise that authority✓ over a person or body in a subordinate position✓ whose rights are affected by the action✓. Ms Naidoo is a subject of an administrative-law relationship as her rights are affected by the exercise of state authority by the Department of Home Affairs✓. Ms Naidoo is also in a subordinate position.✓

If a student indicates that this is an individual administrative-law relationship where rules apply personally and specifically between the parties and the relationship is created by individual administrative decisions✓ an extra mark may be awarded.

- 1.2 Identify the administrative action in the set of facts. In your answer you should give a full definition of the concept "administrative action" as provided in the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act (PAJA) 3 of 2000. (13)

Section 1 of PAJA✓ defines "administrative action" as any decision taken, or any failure to take a decision,✓ by -

- (a) an organ of state,✓ when-
 - (i) exercising a power in terms of the Constitution or a provincial constitution;✓ or

Paper 43 May June 2012 Memo:

The Integration and Protection of Immigrants Paul Van Aerschot, Patricia Daenzer, 2016-02-24 In Scandinavian countries immigration is a sensitive issue and legislators approach to the questions it has raised has varied over the years. Whatever immigrant and integration policies are adopted in a democratic society it is clear that the legislation and the authorities have to ensure that the individual rights of the immigrants residing in its territory are respected. With Canada as a point of reference this book draws attention to weaknesses in the regulation and implementation of integration provisions threatening the immigrants individual rights in the EU member states of Denmark, Finland and Sweden. The study challenges readers to critically review the meaning of rights and the notion of global caring. It takes a critical look at how vulnerable immigrants fare in a largely immigrant nation with a welfare capitalism legacy when compared to three European nations which claim to embrace institutional welfare models. This book will be of great interest to scholars and decision makers interested in Scandinavian or Canadian immigration and integration policies.

Fallout John Solomon, Seamus Bruner, 2020-07-14 This book is a MUST BUY. President Donald J. Trump. The Russia and Ukraine scandals are unraveled. Corruption and greed exposed. No one is better at uncovering the truth than these two investigative journalists. Gregg Jarrett, FOX News legal analyst and author of the 1 NYT bestsellers The Russia Hoax and Witch Hunt. An exhaustively researched book that reads like an investigative thriller. Fallout reveals how Obama's Russian Reset led to corruption scandal and a desperate bid to impeach Donald Trump. In 2015 a major story broke exposing Hillary Clinton's role in approving the sale of American uranium assets to the Russian state nuclear agency Rosatom. Not only did the sale of Uranium One put 20 percent of America's domestic uranium supply under the control of Vladimir Putin, there was also evidence that the Clintons themselves had hugely profited from the deal. When presidential candidate Donald Trump made Uranium One the centerpiece of his 'Crooked Hillary' attacks, the Clinton team feared its potential to damage Hillary's campaign. Others in the Obama-Biden camp worried that if elected Trump would expose their role in selling out America's security to Putin. Their desperate need to neutralize the issue led them to launch an unprecedented investigation into the Trump campaign's purported ties to Russia. The infamous Steele dossier produced by Clinton-connected Fusion GPS sparked an investigation under FBI Director James Comey. Instead of ending after the election, the investigation grew bigger, eventually leading to Comey's firing and the appointment of Special Counsel Robert Mueller. When Mueller failed to find grounds for impeachment, Democrats seized on an ambiguous phone call with the Ukrainian president as a pretext to remove Trump from office. This gambit blew up in their faces when it exposed the secrets that Democrats tried hard to keep buried. An indispensable guide to the hidden background of recent events, Fallout shows how Putin's bid for nuclear dominance produced a series of political scandals that ultimately posed one of the greatest threats to our democracy in modern American history.

Herpolsheimer, 2021-02-28 This book studies relevant actors and practices of conflict intervention by African regional organizations and their intimate connection to space making addressing a major gap regarding what actually happens within and around these organizations Based on extensive empirical research it argues that those intervention practices are essentially spatializing practices based on particular spatial imaginations contributing to the continuous construction and formatting of regional spaces as well as to ordering relations between different regional spaces Analyzing the field of developing practices of conflict intervention by the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the African Union AU the book contributes a new theory oriented analytical approach to study African regional organizations ROs and the complex dynamics of African peace and security based on insights from Critical Geography As such it helps to close an empirical gap with regard to the internal modes of operation of African ROs as well as the lack of their theorization It demonstrates that contrary to most accounts intervention practices of African ROs have been diverse and complexly interrelated involving different actors within and around these organizations and are essentially tied to the space making This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of African Politics Governance Peace and Security Studies International or Regional Organizations and more broadly to Comparative Regionalism International Relations and International Studies Arbitration in Belgium Niuscha Bassiri, Maarten Draye, 2016-03-24 Despite the obvious advantages accruing from its central location and the presence of the EU institutions in its capital city Brussels Belgium has never fully fulfilled its potential to emerge as an attractive jurisdiction for international arbitration. Now however with the adoption in 2013 of an entirely new arbitration law and the accompanying overhaul of the rules of CEPANI the Belgian Centre for Arbitration and Mediation Brussels is poised to progress rapidly towards the top rank of European and global seats of arbitration. This is the first comprehensive treatise in English to provide practical guidance to arbitration practitioners in house counsel and judges on how to conduct arbitrations in Belgium. To facilitate its use it is structured as an article by article commentary on the 2013 Law addressing the following aspects of each article: the purpose of the provision, comparison with the UNCITRAL Model Law on Commercial Arbitration, party autonomy, issues of costs and interplay with the rules of other major arbitration institutions and the New York Convention. The core of each article commentary is an in depth analysis that provides recommendations to practitioners and judges. The analysis goes beyond the contents of the commented article and deals with related issues that are not addressed expressly in the Law but may be of relevance for the issues covered in the provision in question. Arbitration professionals will find here convincing evidence of the liberal system for arbitration now prevailing in Belgium along with rules that reflect the most recent trends in international practice. The description and analysis offered are sure to contribute to the recognition of Belgium as a global arbitral jurisdiction.

The Rhetorical Invention of America's National Security State Marouf Hasian Jr., Sean Lawson, Megan D. McFarlane, 2015-07-29. The Rhetorical Invention of America's National Security State examines the rhetoric and discourse produced by and constitutive of America's national security state. Hasian, Lawson and McFarlane illustrate the importance of rhetoric to the expansion of the American national security state in the post 9/11 era through their examination of the global war on terrorism, enhanced interrogation techniques, drone crew stress activities of Edward Snowden, rise of Special Forces and popular representations of counterterrorism. The coauthors contend this expansion was not the result of lone imperial executives or a nefarious state within a state but was co-produced by elite and non-elite Americans alike who not only condoned but also in many cases demanded the expansion of the national security state. This work will be of interest to scholars in communication studies and political science.

A History of the 1957 Federation of Malaya Constitution Joseph M. Fernando, 2024-12-09. Fernando examines important aspects of the drafting of 1957 Federation of Malaya constitution related to the system of governance, division of legislative and executive powers, the conceptualisation of citizenship and the roles of the judiciary and election commission. The book sheds new light on the balances that the Reid Commission sought to embed in the constitution and the historical constitutional debates and discussions which greatly shaped the framing of the new federal constitution between 1956 and 1957. Drawing on historical evidence mainly from declassified primary constitutional documents it analyses the submissions, debates and discussions among the framers and various interest groups during the drafting of the constitution between 1956 and 1957 to discern more clearly the intentions of the framers on many aspects of governance and distribution of powers embedded in the constitutional provisions. This book reveals more deeply the nature and complexity of the constitutional issues faced by the framers and how they attempted to reach compromises between the various interest groups in Malaya It is a valuable resource for scholars and academics of Malaysian Asian and Commonwealth constitutional history as well as those interested in history law political science and important aspects of governance and distribution of powers in the system of parliamentary democracy

Securing Peace in Europe Stephan Kieninger, 2025-09-09 After the Cold War the United States and its NATO allies faced crucial questions Could Russia their old adversary be integrated into the liberal international order What roles should former Soviet republics and satellite states in Eastern and Central Europe play in the Euro Atlantic security system These questions have taken on renewed significance since Russia's full scale invasion of Ukraine as Vladimir Putin has portrayed Russia as the victim of Western expansionism This deeply researched book offers new perspective on the NATO Russia relationship through the eyes of Strobe Talbott a deputy secretary of state for seven years under President Bill Clinton and the key US diplomatic broker for the former USSR Stephan Kieninger traces the Clinton administration's efforts to engage Russia and enlarge NATO at the same time as elements of a new European security architecture Drawing on Talbott's diaries as well as US and European archives and extensive interviews with former government officials he sheds light on NATO's opening its missions in Bosnia and Kosovo and other vexed issues Kieninger argues that a careful look at Talbott's statecraft rebuts Putin's claims that the West exploited Russia's weakness after the Cold War demonstrating that the Clinton administration and its NATO allies sought to include Russia at every step An illuminating and comprehensive account of US diplomacy during the Clinton years Securing Peace in Europe provides vital insight into the complex relations between Russia and the West

Community Interests Across International Law Eyal Benvenisti, Georg Nolte, 2018-05-16 This book explores the extent to which contemporary international law expects states to take into account the interests of others namely third states or their citizens when they form and implement their policies negotiate agreements and generally conduct their relations with other states It systematically considers the various manifestations of what has been described as community interests in many areas regulated by international law and observes how the law has evolved from a legal system based on more or less specific consent and aimed at promoting particular interests of states to one that is more generally oriented towards collectively protecting common interests and values Through essays by experts in the field this book explores topics such as the sources of international law and the institutional aspects of developing the law and covers a range of areas within the law

The Great Eurozone Disaster Heikki Patomaki, 2013-03-14 The last couple of years have seen the eurozone lurch from crisis to calamity With Greece Portugal and Ireland already driven to the brink of economic catastrophe and the threat that a number of other EU countries are soon to follow the consequences for the global economy are potentially dire In The Great Eurozone Disaster Heikki Patomaki dissects the current crisis revealing its origins lie in the instability that has driven the process of financialisation since the early 1970s Furthermore the public debt crises in the European deficit countries have been aggravated rather than alleviated by the responses of the Commission and leaders of the surplus countries especially Germany Providing a captivating narrative about how Europe ended up in its present

predicament Patom ki presents a radical new vision for global economic democracy as the only viable way out of the current crisis

EU Policies in the Eastern Neighbourhood Elena Korosteleva, Michal Natorski, Licínia Simão, 2018-10-24 The EU continuously searches for more effective policy towards its eastern neighbourhood which is reflected in the on going adaptation of its existing approaches discourses and policy strategies to the new challenges of its external environment In order to understand the complexity and limitations of the EU framework under the European Neighbourhood Policy ENP and the Eastern Partnership Initiative EaP that is to consider the interface between policy instruments institutional structures and multiple agents one needs to adopt an original analytical perspective of practices to comprehensively assess the policies outcomes This volume therefore offers an examination of social practices as implemented through the use of policy instruments and subsequently embedded into the existing emergent social structures which shape and determine the EU neighbours relations To gauge success of the ENP in the eastern region the manuscript pulls together a rich collection of geographical and thematic case studies joined by the overarching conceptual framework of practices This study s principal aims are to discern patterns of social practices which guide agents interactions in different policy areas to explore the origin and effect of these practices the role of dominant discourses logistical imbalances deliberate strategies etc and to explicate the nature of the emerging social structures being established in the eastern region This approach is distinctive from other constructivist undertakings as it allows to synergise the meanings of social actions through the focus on agents and instruments and their structural extensions through the focus on emergent structures across geo and bio political localities of the EU and its eastern neighbourhood This book was published as a special issue of East European Politics

Tonkin Gulf and the Escalation of the Vietnam War, Revised Edition Edwin Moise, 2019-07-15 On July 31 the U S Navy destroyer USS Maddox DD 731 began a reconnaissance cruise off the coast of North Vietnam On August 2 three North Vietnamese torpedo boats attacked the ship On the night of August 4 the Maddox and another destroyer the USS Turner Joy DD 951 expecting to be attacked saw what they interpreted as hostile torpedo boats on their radars and reported themselves under attack The following day the United States bombed North Vietnam in retaliation Congress promptly passed almost unanimously and with little debate a resolution granting President Lyndon Johnson authority to take all necessary measures to deal with aggression in Vietnam The incident of August 4 1964 is at the heart of this book The author interviewed numerous Americans who were present Most believed in the moment that an attack was occurring By the time they were interviewed there were more doubters than believers but the ones who still believed were more confident in their opinions Factoring in degree of assurance one could say that the witnesses were split right down the middle on this fundamental question A careful and rigorous examination of the other forms of evidence including intercepted North Vietnamese naval communications interrogations of North Vietnamese torpedo boat personnel captured later in the war and the destroyers detailed records of the location and duration of radar contacts lead the author to conclude that no attack occurred that night

Paper 43 May June 2012 Memo Introduction

In this digital age, the convenience of accessing information at our fingertips has become a necessity. Whether its research papers, eBooks, or user manuals, PDF files have become the preferred format for sharing and reading documents. However, the cost associated with purchasing PDF files can sometimes be a barrier for many individuals and organizations. Thankfully, there are numerous websites and platforms that allow users to download free PDF files legally. In this article, we will explore some of the best platforms to download free PDFs. One of the most popular platforms to download free PDF files is Project Gutenberg. This online library offers over 60,000 free eBooks that are in the public domain. From classic literature to historical documents, Project Gutenberg provides a wide range of PDF files that can be downloaded and enjoyed on various devices. The website is user-friendly and allows users to search for specific titles or browse through different categories. Another reliable platform for downloading Paper 43 May June 2012 Memo free PDF files is Open Library. With its vast collection of over 1 million eBooks, Open Library has something for every reader. The website offers a seamless experience by providing options to borrow or download PDF files. Users simply need to create a free account to access this treasure trove of knowledge. Open Library also allows users to contribute by uploading and sharing their own PDF files, making it a collaborative platform for book enthusiasts. For those interested in academic resources, there are websites dedicated to providing free PDFs of research papers and scientific articles. One such website is Academia.edu, which allows researchers and scholars to share their work with a global audience. Users can download PDF files of research papers, theses, and dissertations covering a wide range of subjects. Academia.edu also provides a platform for discussions and networking within the academic community. When it comes to downloading Paper 43 May June 2012 Memo free PDF files of magazines, brochures, and catalogs, Issuu is a popular choice. This digital publishing platform hosts a vast collection of publications from around the world. Users can search for specific titles or explore various categories and genres. Issuu offers a seamless reading experience with its user-friendly interface and allows users to download PDF files for offline reading. Apart from dedicated platforms, search engines also play a crucial role in finding free PDF files. Google, for instance, has an advanced search feature that allows users to filter results by file type. By specifying the file type as "PDF," users can find websites that offer free PDF downloads on a specific topic. While downloading Paper 43 May June 2012 Memo free PDF files is convenient, it's important to note that copyright laws must be respected.
