ethical and excellent writing performances      Academic Writing, Real World Topics - Concise Edition Michael Rectenwald, Lisa Carl, 2016-07-20 Academic Writing Real World Topics fills a void in the writing across the curriculum textbook market. It draws together articles and essays of actual academic prose as opposed to journalism; it arranges material by topic instead of by discipline or academic division and it approaches topics from multiple disciplinary and critical perspectives. With extensive introductions, rhetorical instruction and suggested additional resources accompanying each chapter, Academic Writing Real World Topics introduces students to the kinds of research and writing that they will be expected to undertake throughout their college careers and beyond. This concise edition provides all the features of the complete edition in a more compact and affordable format.

Key Features: Contemporary cutting edge readings on relevant topics; Extensive cross referencing between the rhetoric and the reader to help students make connections; Full length essays rather than excerpts; Chapter introductions that put readings in context and promote interdisciplinary connections; Sample student essays to demonstrate student contribution; As You Read guides to each chapter that encourage readers to locate points of contact among readings; Questions after each reading that enable comprehension; help students identify rhetorical moves and prompt oral and written response.

Composing Research, Communicating Results Kurt Lindemann, 2025-09-17 Offers practical guidance on writing communication research papers in an evolving academic landscape. Writing remains central to student assessment and professional development yet many students enter communication classes without the skills needed to craft effective scholarly work. Composing Research Communicating Results: Writing the Communication Research Paper is a comprehensive practice based guide to academic writing in communication and related social sciences. Walking students through every stage of the writing process from brainstorming and outlining to constructing sentences and presenting their final papers, Kurt Lindemann demystifies writing through clear explanations, practical exercises and real student examples. With the rapid emergence of AI writing tools, students need more than tips; they need ethical frameworks and critical strategies for integrating these technologies into their work. This edition addresses these needs head on, providing real world advice on maintaining academic integrity when using AI in the writing process. Expanded content also includes a new chapter on incorporating feedback into revisions and enhanced discussions on inclusive language, citation practices and diversity in source selection. Applying writing principles specifically to communication focused assignments such as literature reviews and application papers. Composing Research Communicating Results Offers the most comprehensive treatment available of sentence and paragraph construction in communication writing. Equips students to present and submit papers to academic and professional outlets including conferences and podcasts. Introduces the TESLA Method for effective paragraph development and writing flow. Highlights common grammar issues with accessible, relatable explanations.
