William Millar,George Bankart,2015-06-03 William Millar's classic book Plastering Plain and Decorative is universally referred to as the Plasterer's Bible It was first published in 1897 and was clearly a great success with a second edition following a couple of years later in 1899 and a third edition in 1905 a reprint of the first edition is available from Donhead In 1927 the publishers B T Batsford Ltd decided that it was time to republish Millar's magnum opus but that the fourth edition should be revised and updated They asked George P Bankart an architect craftsman and author who had already written another book for them to take on this task George Percy Bankart was an architect highly influenced by the Arts and Crafts movement who had chosen to work as a decorative craftsman The Arts and Crafts was an English movement dedicated to the idea that architecture could be inspired by a revival of traditional building crafts and materials It started in the second half of the 19th century based on the writings of Ruskin and was driven by the ideas Morris amongst many others and carried on into the first quarter of the 20th century Bankart was born in Leicester on the 20th January 1866 and was a great friend of Ernest W Gimson another Leicester born architect just over a year his elder Both men studied and became architects and shared a creative passion for the handicrafts Whilst Gimson's career included embroidery design traditional chair making and furniture design as well as decorative modeled plasterwork Bankart concentrated primarily on plasterwork Their different activities were true to the ideas of the Arts and Crafts movement and their designs reflect the movement's interest in a return to nature Bankart's career as an author started with The Art of The Plasterer which was published by B T Batsford Ltd in 1909 He seems to have taken a break from writing until together with his son G Edward Bankart he produced two books Modern Plasterwork Construction in 1926 followed in 1927 by Modern Plasterwork Design both published by the Architectural Press Also in 1927 he was back with B T Batsford Ltd for the publication of this fourth and revised edition of Millar Say No Before Jail Says Yes - School Version J. I. M. HEITMEYER,Mark BRIM,2010-01-05 Teaching children to make the right choice Educate them to not choose to go to jail Educative Equipment for Rural Schools Fannie Wyche Dunn,1921 Teaching Art to Young Children 4-9 Rob Barnes,2002-11 This second edition of a classic and popular book includes new chapters figures and colour plates The book blends practical ideas with sound principles of art education For the teacher or trainee teacher looking for ideas there are plenty of tested classroom examples For those looking for firm principles of art teaching and best practice this book presents many important issues in art education with clarity and insight Based on first hand experience of teaching children the book uses many examples from the school situation Essential topics such as developing skills through using media how children draw producing original artwork developing ideas and Art and the digital image are tackled with realism and imagination An important feature is that these subjects are not seen in isolation but are purposefully linked with other areas of the curriculum The author s approach should encourage teachers to develop and think about art in the National Curriculum His writing shows a deep sympathy with children and sensitivity to the real task of teaching art to the young Scouting ,1928 Includes Annual report of the Boy Scouts of America
