Translation and Own-Language Use in Language Teaching Eva Skopečková, 2024-04-06 This book reconsiders the role of translation and own language use in the EFL English as a Foreign Language classroom It shows prospective teachers how to use the learners own language and translation optimally The author surveys current research about the EFL classroom and presents both a theoretical framework and a didactic model for using translation and learners mother tongues This is done through an action research project assessing the proposed didactic model for optimal translation practice in English Language teaching OTP in ELT through its integration into teacher education The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the areas of Translation Studies and Applied Linguistics particularly EFL ESL TEFL and TESOL as well as educators and designers of pre service training programmes for language teachers The Multilingual Turn Stephen May, 2013-07-24 Drawing on the latest developments in bilingual and multilingual research The Multilingual Turn offers a critique of and alternative to still dominant monolingual theories pedagogies and practices in SLA TESOL and bilingual education Critics of the monolingual bias argue that notions such as the idealized native speaker and related concepts of interlanguage language competence and fossilization have framed these fields inextricably in relation to monolingual speaker norms In contrast these critics advocate an approach that emphasizes the multiple competencies of bi multilingual learners as the basis for successful language teaching and learning This volume takes a big step forward in re situating the issue of multilingualism more centrally in applied linguistics and in so doing making more permeable its key sub disciplinary boundaries particularly those between SLA TESOL and bilingual education It addresses this issue head on bringing together key international scholars in SLA TESOL and bilingual education to explore from cutting edge interdisciplinary perspectives what a more critical multilingual perspective might mean for theory pedagogy and practice in each of these fields New headway.
