The Storytime Handbook Nina Schatzkamer Miller, 2014-01-23 Fresh fun ideas for children's storytime fill this book. The author, a long-time storytime facilitator, has put together 52 weekly themes plus additional plans for holidays, all with detailed instructions for talking about the theme and choosing the books, crafts, songs, poems, games, and snacks. Each storytime idea is illustrated with photographs of a suggested craft and snack for easy reference. Libraries, bookstores, preschools, and parents alike can use this book to offer themed storytimes that include discussion, literature, art, music, movement, and food. Options are provided for each storytime so the ideas can be used year after year. Simple Puppets from Everyday Materials Barbara MacDonald Buetter, 1996 Turn an empty cereal box into a friendly hippopotamus, a paper plate into a dancing dandelion, a sock into a snake, a glove into an entire family. Each of the more than twenty types of puppet in this colorful cast of characters can be made with materials easily found around the house. Use toilet paper rolls and paper towel tubes, empty cardboard juice cans and juice boxes, wooden spoons and thread spools, old socks and fabric scraps, paper bags, Popsicle sticks, egg cartons, drinking straws, construction paper, yarn, magazines, and much more. Make hand puppets, finger puppets, marionettes, jumping puppets, papier mache puppets, and other fun friends. Decorate a puppet stage and put on a show. Easy-to-follow instructions, helpful tips, and imaginative suggestions encourage kids to explore their creativity. Any type of creature can be made: a wiggly caterpillar or ferocious dragon, silly two-faced tube heads, jiggling gymnasts, a wacky carrot critter, or banana buddy. The possibilities are endless. The perfect activity for a rainy day, a leisurely weekend, or any time, puppet making offers hours of laughter and plenty of fun, and it's a great way to recycle, too. Sterling/Tamos, 80 pages, all in color, 8 1/2 x 10. 103 Crafts & Activities for Preschoolers & Toddlers Katherine Smiley, 2015-09-12 Toddlers and preschoolers can be difficult to keep busy because their attention spans tend to be short-lived. Yet they are curious and imaginative and so much fun to spend time with. Furthermore, most young children just want to be entertained throughout the hours of the day and are eager to learn anything they can. Now you too can collaborate with your little one on art masterpieces and decorative crafts, as well as play educational games. Whether you're a parent, nanny, day-care provider, or preschool teacher, you can benefit from this long list of activities to stimulate children's minds and keep their hands busy for hours. In this book, you will find a wealth of ideas to share with your young child. Some of the activities require your close supervision. Many of the arts and crafts projects will result in beautiful seasonal decorations to display in your home. You will be astounded by the creations you can make with your preschooler who will alternatively be enthusiastic about tapping their imagination, enhancing their knowledge, and most of all, spending valuable time with you. The 103 activities are split into four main categories that correspond to the four seasons. Many of the projects can be done during any season, but the subcategories are themed. Here are what the subcategories look like: Introduction, The Best Way to Use This Book, I Spring, Let's Go Fishing, Pirates and Princesses, Easter, II Summer, Let's Go on a Safari, Gnomes and Fairies, Fourth of July, III Fall, Let's Be
