Holocaust Representations in History Daniel H. Magilow, Lisa Silverman, 2015-02-26 Holocaust Representations in History is an introduction to critical questions and debates surrounding the depiction, chronicling and memorialization of the Holocaust through the historical analysis of some of the most provocative and significant works of Holocaust representation. In a series of chronologically presented case studies, the book introduces the major themes and issues of Holocaust representation across a variety of media and genres including film, drama, literature, photography, visual art, television, graphic novels, and memorials. The case studies presented not only include well-known, commercially successful and canonical works about the Holocaust such as the film Shoah and Elie Wiesel's memoir Night, but also controversial examples that have drawn accusations of profaning the memory of the genocide. Each work's specific historical and cultural significance is then discussed to provide further insight into the impact of one of the most devastating events of the 20th century and the continued relevance of its memory. Complete with illustrations, a bibliography, and suggestions for further reading, key terms, and discussion questions, this is an important book for any student keen to know more about the Holocaust and its impact.

Trauma, History, Philosophy (With Feature Essays by Agnes Heller and György Márkus) Murray Noonan, Matthew Sharpe, 2009-03-26 In the age of the war on terror and what one critic has called disaster capitalism, the topic of trauma has assumed renewed cultural relevance. Trauma, Historicity, Philosophy is a collection of essays by Australian philosophers, psychoanalysts, and cultural theorists on the genealogy, semantics, and relevance of the concept of trauma in the contemporary world. The collection features two essays by Agnes Heller and György Markus addressing trauma and what psychoanalysis, elevation of trauma to cultural centrality, means and has meant for modern philosophy and social theory. Other essays address 9/11, cyber terrorism, the Shoah, political tyranny, the end of history, and engage with the thought of Kierkegaard, Schmitt, Hobbes, Derrida, Agamben, Badiou, Žižek, Lacan, and Freud.

Jews, God, and Videotape Jeffrey Shandler, 2009-04-01 A pioneering examination of the impact of new communications technologies and media practices on the religious life of American Jewry. Engaging media has been an ongoing issue for American Jews as it has been for other religious communities in the United States for several generations. Shandler's examples range from early recordings of cantorial music to Hasidic outreach on the Internet. In between, he explores mid-twentieth-century ecumenical radio and television broadcasting, video documentation of life cycle rituals, museum displays, and tourist practices as means for engaging the Holocaust as a moral touchstone and the role of mass-produced material culture in Jews' responses to the American celebration of Christmas. Shandler argues that the impact of these and other media on American Judaism is varied and extensive; they have challenged the role of clergy and transformed the nature of ritual, facilitated innovations in religious practice and scholarship, as well as efforts to maintain traditional observance and teachings, created venues for outreach both to enhance relationships with non-Jewish neighbors and to promote greater religiosity among Jews, even redefined the notion of what might constitute a Jewish religious community or spiritual experience As Jews God and Videotape demonstrates American Jews experiences are emblematic of how religious communities engagements with new media have become central to defining religiosity in the modern age Essays in European History Carolyn W. God and Humanity in Auschwitz Donald J. Dietrich, 2009-08-01 God and Humanity in Auschwitz synthesizes the findings of research developed over the last thirty years on the rise of anti-Semitism in our civilization Donald J Dietrich sees the Holocaust as a case study of how prejudice has been theologically enculturated He suggests how it may be controlled by reducing aggressive energy before it becomes overwhelming Dietrich studies the recent responses of Christian theologians to the Holocaust and the Jewish theological response to questions concerning God's covenant with Israel which were provoked by Auschwitz Social science has dealt with the psychosocial dynamics that have supported genocide and helps explain how ordinary persons can produce extraordinary evil Dietrich shows how this research combined with theological analyses can help reconfigure theology itself Such an approach may serve to help dissolve anti-Semitism to aid in constructing such positive values as respect for human dignity and to point the way to restricting future outbreaks of genocide God and Humanity in Auschwitz surveys which religious factors created a climate that permitted the Holocaust It also illuminates what social science has to tell us about developing a strategy that when institutionally implemented can channel our energies away from sanctioned murder toward a more compassionate society The book has proven to be an essential resource for theologians sociologists historians and political theorists Term Paper Resource Guide to Twentieth-Century World History Michael Richards, Philip F.
