Young Adult Literature and Spirituality William Boerman-Cornell, Deborah Vriend, Van Duinen, Kristine Alatheia Menonides Gritter, Xu Bian, 2022-09-28. This book offers revolutionary approaches to in-class discussions about young adult literature. It shows teachers how to think more widely than the themes of a book to consider how they might operate as prayers of lament, yearning, anger, confession, thankfulness, reconciliation, joy, obedience, pilgrimage, contemplation, and equanimity. It also offers a variety of ways for classroom discussion to consider a representative sentence or two from a young adult novel and from that allow students to connect to linked passages in the rest of the novel. These approaches for classroom discussion are drawn from a variety of contemplative traditions, including Jewish and Christian faith traditions, and include florilegium, lectio divina, PaRDeS, Ignatian Imagination, havruta, and marginalia. Drawing from a range of in-class experiences, the authors explain each approach in the context of twelve popular and critically interesting young adult novels, including The Hate U Give, Long Way Down, Speak, The Poet X, The Fault in Our Stars, Brown Girl Dreaming, and others. This book will transform discussions that are disconnected from the book, lacking in relevance, or missing the energy that drives good conversation into meaningful and energetic class discussions that students and teachers alike will value.

Grass As a Symbol For Life and Death in Walt Whitman's "Song of myself" Teresa Ruß, 2019-03-22. Research Paper, undergraduate from the year 2017, in the subject American Studies, Literature, grade 2-3, University of Erfurt, course Nature in American Poetry, language English, abstract. In this paper, the author concentrates on one of Walt Whitman's most important poems, Song of Myself, which is an exploration of the author himself, nature, and his surroundings, especially the symbolism of grass in it. The author starts by classifying Leaves of Grass in American Literature and to put the title of the book in context with the usage of grass in the poem In the main part of the paper she is of course going to focus on the grass how it is used and what it means spanning themes of individuality knowability of nature and ecology also using theoretical approaches by Greg Garrard W J T Mitchell and Lawrence Buell Whitman tries to abstractly answer those questions for himself especially considering how frail Americans must've felt on the brink of the Civil War and over the controversy of the slave trade The theory brought forward is that the grass in the poem symbolizes humanity and life but also death and decay which is in one way a stark contrast But then again it also makes total sense after having read the whole poem because it all connects in the life span of a human being
