

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Paper2 Tswana Memorandum:

English Language and Literature Modupe Moyosore Alimi, Mopoloki Mmangaka Bagwasi, Patrick James Ebewo, 2020-11-09 English Language and Literature Cross Cultural Currents is a collection of essays that interrogate the precarious positions of English and African languages in an era in which English is increasingly becoming the dominant language in Africa while at the same time there is a growing resistance against it. Though many Africans take pride in their own cultural heritage that is expressed by their African languages, they require the economic and social benefits of English. The book presents a language dilemma in which both African languages and English enhance, inhibit, and influence each other. The data used by the authors spans a broad spectrum of sources including fiction, courts, parliamentary Hansards, House of Chiefs, classrooms, internet, roads, and bus ranks. Thus, it is reflective of the most and least educated, the most and least influential Africans. The presentations provide broad insights about African symbols, metaphors, imagery, and folklores representing undocumented literature that challenge scientific imperialism and deficit theories. The diversity and freshness of the ideas in the book stem from the unique blend of the background of the contributors: English language and literature teachers, teachers of African languages, educationalists, sociologists, historians, and politicians. Thus, the book is a valuable asset to scholars in linguistics, anthropology, and language policy makers. Resources in Education, 1987 Rabadia Ratshatsha Mawatle Jeremiah Mojalefa, 2007-11-01 After forty years in academia, P. S. Groenwald leaves a rich heritage which is measured not only in terms of his impressive list of publications but also in terms of those for whom he was the academic mentor. His versatility as an academic is reflected in the variety of specialist fields in which his former students find themselves. Experts in literature and linguistics, lexicographers, and translators all found their niches under his tutelage. In appreciation of the enormous contribution that he made towards their careers and academic schooling, former students and colleagues have decided to honour him with this festschrift. Rural Development Abstracts, 1982 Weekly Parliamentary Debates Botswana.
