Handbook of Literacy in Diglossia and in Dialectal Contexts Elinor Saiegh-Haddad,Lior Laks,Catherine McBride,2022-03-14 This volume is the first published collection of papers on the impact of diglossia and dialectal variations on language and literacy acquisition impairment and education The authors are pioneering in this field and are leading researchers with substantial experience in conducting research in this area A wide range of areas and languages are covered including the US South Africa Israel and various European countries The chapters present novel data and insights regarding the role of dialectal variations on language and literacy from a wide range of countries and perspectives These insights have significant theoretical and practical implications A majority of literacy learners worldwide are taught to read and write in a language variety or a dialect that is not the same as their spoken language Not only is this the global norm but it is probably also the greatest obstacle to literacy learning This volume is the first published collection of papers on the role of dialect in language and literacy acquisition impairment and education in a variety of languages and situations across Europe the Middle East North America Africa and Asia The authors are pioneers in this field

Integrational Linguistics and Philosophy of Language in the Global South Sinfree B. Makoni,Deryn P. Verity,Anna Kaiper-Marquez,2021-05-26 Exploring the nature of possible relationships between Integrational Linguistics and Southern Epistemologies this volume examines various ways in which Integrational Linguistics can be used to support the decolonizing interests of Southern Epistemologies particularly the lay oriented nature of Integrational Linguistics that Southern Epistemologies find productive as a positive counter discourse As both an anti elitist and antiestablishment way of thinking these chapters consider how Integrational Linguistics can be consistent with the decolonial aspirations of Southern Epistemologies They argue that the relationship between Southern Epistemologies and Integrational Linguistics is complicated by the fact that while Integrational Linguistics is critical of what it calls a segregationist view of language i.e the language myth Southern Epistemologies in language policy and planning and minority language movements find the language myth helpful in order to facilitate social transformation And yet both Integrational Linguistics and Southern Epistemologies are critical of approaches to multilingualism that are founded on notions of named languages They are also both critical of linguistics as a decontextualized and institutionalized extension of ordinary metalinguistic practices which at times influence the prejudices preconceptions and ideologies of dominant western cultures This book will prove to be an essential resource for scholars and students not only within the field of integrational linguistics but also in other language and communication fields in particular the dialogic distributed and ecological enactive approaches wherein integrational linguistics has been subjected to scrutiny and criticism

Recommendation on Social Protection Floors Tineke Dijkhoff, Letlhokwa George Mpedi, 2016-04-24 Despite the international community's recognition of social protection as a human right the vast majority of the world's population still has no access to social protection In a major effort to address this situation the International Labour Conference unanimously adopted the Social Protection Floors Recommendation 202 of 2012 However because of the wide variety of possible schemes and techniques that can be employed to administer them there is a genuine risk that important values relating to social protection will be overlooked in implementing the Recommendation This collection of expert essays contains an in depth clarification and analysis of the Recommendation and sets forth a clear and practicable set of principles that can be used both as a policy tool and as an assessment framework for the creation maintenance and supervision of a national social protection floor This book pays detailed attention to each of the Recommendation's key principles including the following state responsibility universality of protection entitlement based in law adequacy and predictability of benefits non discrimination financial solidarity good governance coherence of policies and social participation A special feature of the book is its inclusion of case studies that display innovative social protection schemes focusing on children and families persons of working age particularly informal sector workers and elderly persons A concluding section offers useful insights on measures that can be taken and lessons learned As a deeply informed and practical guide to ways in which states can and do establish and maintain a social protection floor as a fundamental element of their national social protection systems this book has no peers It will be warmly welcomed by jurists concerned with social protection throughout the world by pertinent government agencies at all levels by non governmental organizations and by academics in the field
