Instruction with Technology Michael Martin,2016-07-21 Blending Instruction with Technology is a book that offers educators guidelines and solutions for implementing blended learning in today's classrooms. There has been a strong push by many communities, schools, and educators to move to a 1:1 environment. However, once there, how does one teach or facilitate learning in such an environment? What are the researched best practices for implementing blended learning in classrooms? How do schools provide professional development to teachers to implement best practices in their classroom? Regarding the twenty-year veteran who just recently mastered email, how do schools provide the proper guidance, training, and support for him or her? This book aims to answer these questions and many more. This book is designed to be a blueprint for preparing staff members to be successful in a 1:1 environment. This book also focuses on providing students with a blended learning lesson that incorporates both cognitive and 21st Century Skills.

Bloomsbury CPD Library: Supporting Children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Cherryl Drabble, Bloomsbury CPD Library, 2016-09-22

According to the most recent SEND Code of Practice, every teacher is a teacher of children with special educational needs and disabilities, and yet teachers often receive little or no training in this area. Despite their best intentions, they are therefore often ill-equipped to rise to the challenge of helping their students achieve the best possible educational outcomes. This comprehensive resource will equip primary and secondary teachers and SENDCos with the training and skills they need to fully support children with SEND in mainstream classrooms. Cherryl Drabble draws on her vast experience as a CPD leader, NQT mentor, and her many years of working with SEND to share guidance, practical activities, and strategies for evaluating and strengthening your practice, and that of your colleagues. The book provides a set of ready-to-use training plans accompanied by PowerPoint slides available to download online for free, so you can train your colleagues in this essential area and ensure the best support possible for students with

SEND across your school In total the book offers over 50 hours of CPD equating to a cost of less than 50p per hour of training
