Fear, distress and disbelief of students at University of Glasgow

■ Management accused of 'tolerating antisemitism and threats of violence'

By Andrew Learmonth
Political Editor

JEWISH students at the University of Glasgow have accused campus bosses of tolerating antisemitism and threats of violence.

They say they have been subject to "constant hostility" from students protesting about the war in Gaza, but have had their concerns ignored and dismissed. Anat Krasdin, the co-president of the Jewish Society, said a recent video by the Glasgow

University Justice for Palestine Society (UJPS) had left Jewish students in Glasgow "expressing fear, distress, and disbelief".
