Papers On Relationships:

Collected Papers VI. Literary Reality and Relationships Alfred Schutz, 2012-10-13 This book contains texts devoted by Alfred Schutz to the normative areas of literature and ethics It includes writings dealing with the author reader relationship multiple realities the literary province of meaning and Schutz's views on equality Never published in English commentaries on Goethe's novel and the account of personality in the social world appear in this volume Paper Heritage in Italy, France, Spain and Beyond (16th to 19th Centuries) Benedetta Borello, Laura Casella, 2023-11-30 This book takes a long term approach spanning from the end of the 16th to the end of the 19th centuries to explore how men and women in Italy France and Spain collected displayed and passed down various types of papers The contributors share a core interest in the relationship between social actors and their paper heritage The collectors who come from diverse cultural social and gender backgrounds provide insights into the reasons and processes behind the accumulation valorisation and transmission of their paper heritage Unlike most studies on collecting this book shifts the focus away from collections and institutions to the owners of the collected objects and their desires for their accumulated papers This volume covers three centuries and provides insights into the aspirations of collectors and the fate of their papers after transmission It takes place against the backdrop of major social political and cultural changes affecting the Italian peninsula the Spanish monarchy and France The cultural interests and the collector networks often extended beyond Europe as noted by many of the essays in this volume Paper Heritage in Italy France Spain and Beyond 16th to 19th Centuries will interest scholars and students of Early Modern and Modern European History across various fields including social and cultural history intellectual history gender history history of collecting and patronage Relationships in the Organization of Knowledge A. Bean, R. Green, 2001-03-31 With a goal of improving retrieval in bibliographic environments this volume takes stock of what we know about relationships in the overall bibliographic domain with particular emphasis on relationships between subjects relationships among bibliographic entities and relationships between subject content and user needs The volume presents the current state of the art in examining the expression of relationships in some of the best thesauri and classification schemes in use throughout the world It also looks to the future by providing guidance for relational tasks now taking on greater significance as retrieval systems increasingly operate in automated modes and as retrieval systems cross linguistic cultural and disciplinary boundaries By bringing together in one place the perspectives of some of the most prominent persons working in this arena this volume should be of interest to researchers from library and information science as well as computer science artificial intelligence knowledge representation information retrieval natural language processing and to many practitioners including developers of thesauri and classification schemes developers of Web search engines and search directories indexers and subject cataloguers and professional searchers Collected Papers On The Philosophy Of Chemistry Eric R Scerri, 2008-06-09 This book represents a collection of papers from one of the founders of the new Philosophy of Chemistry It is only the second single author collection of papers on the Philosophy of Chemistry The author is the editor in chief of Foundations of Chemistry the leading journal in the field He has recently gained worldwide success with his book on the periodic table of the elements titled The Periodic Table Its Story and Its Significance This volume provides an in depth examination of his more philosophical and historical work in this area and further afield Papers and Proceedings American Sociological Society.
