Sociological and Philosophical Perspectives on Education in the Asia-Pacific Region Chi-Ming Lam, Jae PARK, 2015-12-12 This book demonstrates the value of approaching education from a sociological and philosophical perspective Specifically it addresses current and long standing educational issues in the Asia Pacific region integrating sociological and philosophical insights with practical applications in four key areas educational aims moral education educational policy and the East West dichotomy It discusses educational aims in terms of rationality philosophical thinking and sustainable development and presents the literary religious and analytical approaches to moral education Four educational policies are then considered Hong Kong's language policy Hong Kong's policy on the internationalization of education East Asia's policies on English education and Australia's policy on teacher education Different aspects of the East West dichotomy are analysed Confucian rationalism versus Western rationalism Confucian learning culture versus Western learning culture and Asian research methodology versus Western research methodology Taken as a whole the book shows that issues in education are rarely simple and looking at them from multiple perspectives allows for rich and informed debates It presents a rare philosophical and sociological analysis of the cultures and experiences of education in the Asia Pacific region and promotes research that leads to more culturally rooted educational policies and practice

Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty-First Century Peter Hernon, Robert E. Dugan, Candy Schwartz, 2013-05-09 This book discusses recent trends in outcomes assessment examines how state governments are reshaping the national discussion with higher education and explains how libraries must respond to these changes Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty first Century focuses on recent developments in outcomes assessment especially from the perspectives of the federal government and state governments as well as foundations concerned about the state of higher education The authors identify the significant changes that these stakeholders call for information that academic librarians and anyone following outcomes assessment need to be aware of and interpret the discussions to identify implications for libraries Building upon the foundation of knowledge presented in the previous two Libraries Unlimited Outcomes Assessment in Higher Education titles this book provides readers with up to date coverage of topics such as the emerging metrics used to define student and institutional success the increased importance of accountability and the need to compare and assess the performance of programs and institutions rather than individual courses and the shift in prioritizing student outcomes over student learning outcomes The authors also spotlight the critical need for libraries to fit their role within the national discussion and suggest ways in which library managers and directors can play a role in redirecting the discussion to their benefit

A Universal Template for Research Position and Life Experience Papers Dale Benjamin Drakeford, 2005

The self descriptive title A Universal Template For Research Position and Life Experience Papers implies that there is a position that writers take in even the simplest of essays As such Template provides an opportunity to accomplish two tasks at once consider the definitive differences between Research Position and Experience papers and explore the issues that impound and empower contemporary urban education Dale Benjamin Drakeford provides an interactive workshop to guide student writing on any social science subject Agreeing with many scholars that public and free pedagogy is indispensable the author also argues that there is no wrong or right in scholastic debate only correct presentation of objective thoughts or non objective attitudes This the author says is what is sometimes forgotten in the heat of getting ideas on paper Hence Template provides structure for planning papers and in process cues for staying on task to complete them with proper formality
