Gaillard,2021-12-30 This theoretical contribution argues that the domination of Western knowledge in disaster scholarship has allowed normative policies and practices of disaster risk reduction to be imposed all over the world It takes a postcolonial approach to unpack why scholars claim that disasters are social constructs while offering little but theories concepts and methods supposed to be universal in understanding the unique and diverse experiences of millions of people across very different cultures It further challenges forms of governments inherited from the Enlightenment that have been rolled out as standard and ultimate solutions to reduce the risk of disaster Ultimately the book encourages the emergence of a more diverse set of world views senses and ways of knowing for both studying disasters and informing policy and practice of disaster risk reduction Such pluralism is essential to better reflect local realities of what disasters actually are around the world This book is an essential read for scholars and postgraduate students interested in disaster studies as well as policy makers and practitioners of disaster risk reduction     City Requiem, Calcutta Ananya Roy,2003 Housing developments emerge amid the paddy fields on the fringes of Calcutta overflowing trains carry peasant women to informal urban labor markets in a daily commute against hunger land is settled and claimed in a complex choreography of squatting and evictions such Ananya Roy contends are the distinctive spaces of a communism for the new millennium where at a moment of liberalization the hegemony of poverty is quietly reproduced An ethnography of urban development in Calcutta Roy s book explores the dynamics of class and gender in the persistence of poverty City Requiem Calcutta emphasizes how gender itself is spatialized and how gender relations are negotiated within the geopolitics of modernity and through the everyday practices of territory Thus Roy shows how urban developmentalism in its populist guise reproduces the relations of masculinist patronage and in its entrepreneurial guise seeks to reclaim a bourgeois Calcutta gentlemanly in its nostalgias In doing so her work expands the field of poverty studies by showing how a politics of poverty is also a poverty of knowledge a construction and management of social and spatial categories     The Book Buyer ,1898     Wrestling With Gods Robert J. Sawyer,Matthew Hughes,Alyxandra Harvey,Megan Fennell,and others,2015-02-26 A mechanical Jesus for your shrine the myths of cuttlefish a vampire in residential schools a Muslim woman who wants to get closer surgically to her god the demons of outer space the downside of Nirvana The 24 science fiction and fantasy stories and poems included in Wrestling with Gods Tesseract Eighteen take their faith and religion into the future into the weird and comic and thought provoking spaces where science fiction and fantasy has really always gone struggling with higher powers gods the limits of technology the limits of spiritual experience At times profound these speculative offerings give readers a chance to see faith from the believer and the skeptic in worlds where what you believe is a matter of life death and afterlife Featuring works by Derwin

The turn of the century has been a moment of rapid urbanization Much of this urban growth is taking place in the cities of the developing world and much of it in informal settlements This book presents cutting edge research from various world regions to demonstrate these trends The contributions reveal that informal housing is no longer the domain of the urban poor rather it is a significant zone of transactions for the middle class and even transnational elites Indeed the book presents a rich view of urban informality as a system of regulations and norms that governs the use of space and makes possible new forms of social and political power The book is organized as a transnational endeavor It brings together three regional domains of research the Middle East Latin America and South Asia that are rarely in conversation with one another It also unsettles the hierarchy of development and underdevelopment by looking at some First World processes of informality through a Third World research lens     Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1977     Machinery [Shop Edition] ,1901
