

Dream School: Why Are You Interested In UCF

'Why did you choose University of Central Florida?' This is a question that is asked to me almost as often as 'What do you want to be when you grow up?' Among my explanations and responses, I often respond by saying, 'Why not UCF?'

I first fell in love with UCF when I was around seven years old at Light up UCF. If UCF was having an event, I was there. As I walked through the alluring campus of UCF, I was immediately attracted to the liveliness of the university. In addition to the liveliness of the campus, the location of UCF in the heart of one of America's most popular cities, that I grew up in, added tremendous desire for me to attend this university.

Having interest in the medical field, to become a RN, the outstanding and modern medical program at UCF has greatly influenced my desire to attend this college. After years of knowing that UCF was the college that I wanted to be at in the near-future, I began to read statements from students and alumni of UCF. As I read through these statements, I became aware of a relationship between that of the students and the professors that not many colleges possess. And last but not least, my desire to attend UCF was blown through the roof as I became aware of all of the extracurricular activities offered by the college. Having participated in sports and other organizations for most of my life, extracurricular activities and a fantastic curriculum has definitely become one of my key things to look for in a college and UCF definitely has what I am looking for.

I can't remember a time when I didn't think UCF was my dream school! My first visit
