Anxious Creativity David Trend, 2019-09-03 Creativity is getting new attention in today s America along the way revealing fault lines in U S culture Surveys show people overwhelmingly seeing creativity as both a desirable trait and a work enhancement yet most say they just aren t creative Like beauty and wealth creativity seems universally desired but insufficiently possessed Businesses likewise see innovation as essential to productivity and growth but can t bring themselves to risk new ideas Even as one s inner artist is hyped by a booming self help industry creative education dwindles in U S schools Anxious Creativity When Imagination Fails examines this conceptual mess while focusing on how America s current edginess dampens creativity in everyone Written in an engaging and accessible style Anxious Creativity draws on current ideas in the social sciences economics and the arts Discussion centers on the knotty problem of reconciling the expressive potential in all people with the nation s tendency to reward only a few Fortunately there is some good news as scientists economists and creative professionals have begun advocating new ways of sharing and collaboration Building on these prospects the book argues that America s innovation crisis demands a rethinking of individualism competition and the ways creativity is rewarded

Writing Jewish Culture Andreas Kilcher, Gabriella Safran, 2016-04-04 Looks at the ethnographic issues while defining Jewishness in a very fresh sophisticated way very timely and important Washington Book Review Focusing on Eastern and Central Europe before WWII this collection explores various genres of ethno literature across temporal geographical and ideological borders as sites of Jewish identity formation and dissemination Challenging the assumption of cultural uniformity among Ashkenazi Jews the contributors consider how ethnographic literature defines Jews and Jewishness the political context of Jewish ethnography and the question of audience readers and listeners With contributions from leading scholars and an appendix of translated historical ethnographies this volume presents vivid case studies across linguistic and disciplinary divides revealing a rich textual history that throws the complexity and diversity of a people into sharp relief

Literature and Food Studies Amy Tigner, Allison

Carruth, 2017-11-22 Literature and Food Studies introduces readers to a growing interdisciplinary field by examining literary genres and cultural movements as they engage with the edible world and in turn illuminate transnational histories of empire domesticity scientific innovation and environmental transformation and degradation With a focus on the Americas and Europe Literature and Food Studies compares works of imaginative literature from Ovid's Metamorphoses and Shakespeare's The Winter's Tale to James Joyce's Ulysses and Toni Morrison's Tar Baby with what the authors define as vernacular literary practices which take written form as horticultural manuals recipes cookbooks restaurant reviews agricultural manifestos dietary treatises and culinary guides For those new to its principal subject Literature and Food Studies introduces core concepts in food studies that span anthropology geography history literature and other fields it compares canonical literary texts with popular forms of print culture and it aims to inspire future research and teaching Combining a cultural studies approach to foodways and food systems with textual analysis and archival research the book offers an engaging and lucid introduction for humanities scholars and students to the rapidly expanding field of food studies and Environmental Disaster Martin Premoli, 2025-08-07 Examining contemporary literary depictions of environmental disasters through a North South axis this book explores the resonances and dissonances between environmentalisms of marginalized communities in the U S and the global South Pairing anti colonial texts from the United States with examples from the Global South it interrogates the complexity of global precarity and particular forms of environmental violence Each pairing is linked to a specific manifestation of environmental disaster such as hurricane drought species extinction and agricultural collapse Featuring texts from authors such as Jesmyn Ward Monique Roffey Paolo Bacigalupi Alexis Wright Linda Hogan Henrietta Rose Innes Ruth Ozeki and Sonora Jha this book models how a comparative global North global South approach to literary studies can help us untangle the complex power dynamics and differentials of the Anthropocene

Global Fictions
