Ugc Pay Commission Final Report:

Annual Report for the Year ... India. University Grants Commission, 2013 Research Anthology on Preparing School Administrators to Lead Quality Education Programs Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-07-24 The delivery of quality education to students relies heavily on the actions of an institution's administrative staff Effective leadership strategies allow for the continued progress of modern educational initiatives It is crucial to investigate how effective administrators lead their organizations in challenging and difficult times and promote the accomplishments of their organization Research Anthology on Preparing School Administrators to Lead Quality Education Programs is a vital reference source that offers theoretical and pedagogical research concerning the management of educational systems on both the national and international scale It also explores academic administration as well as administrative effectiveness in achieving organizational goals Highlighting a range of topics such as strategic planning human resources and school culture this multi volume book is ideally designed for educators administrators principals superintendents board members researchers academicians policymakers and students The Privatisation of Higher Education in Postcolonial Bangladesh Ariful H. Kabir, Raqib Chowdhury, 2021-05-16 This book problematises contemporary realities of the political dimension of the privatisation of higher education in Bangladesh By exploring the complexities of neoliberalism as an economic and ideological doctrine a mode of governance and as a policy package it considers the post attached to and hyphenated with colonialism as more aspirational than achieved Based on an interdisciplinary study involving contemporary theories from political and social sciences economics and the socio economics of education the book explores the unique ways in which Bangladeshi higher education has evolved over the past four decades and the complex politics behind its privatisation Through an empirically based account of how neoliberalism has worked its way through the higher education sector in the fastest growing economy in the South Asian context it discusses how changes have been characterised by policy reforms massification and a sustained friction between control and autonomy in the university sector The authors take a nuanced approach to their geo political and onto epistemological positionalities as diasporic and hybridised scholars by rejecting epistemological exclusion inherent in the colonial present and research conducted in such contexts This position allows the reinforcement of a colonial present theorising from within Global South decolonial and postcolonial research literature This book contributes to discourses of globalisation from above and globalisation from below and sheds light on the often idiosyncratic ways in which higher education reform has unfolded in South Asia It will be of interest to comparative educators and those researching higher education policy and education developments in Global South nations The Doctorate Worldwide Powell, Stuart, Green, Howard, 2007-06-01 Taking a country by country approach The Doctorate Worldwide examines doctoral study in North and South America South Africa Europe Australia India China Japan and Thailand Each chapter presents demographic and other data and considers key questions such as What are the different forms of doctoral study and qualification available How are institutions organised How are candidates supervised funded and examined Are there identifiable differences in gender race religion etc What is the role of the doctorate in relation to national research policy
