Sabuncu, Gozde Unal, William Wells, 2016-10-17 The three volume set LNCS 9900 9901 and 9902 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 19th International Conference on Medical Image Computing and Computer Assisted Intervention MICCAI 2016 held in Athens Greece in October 2016 Based on rigorous peer reviews the program committee carefully selected 228 revised regular papers from 756 submissions for presentation in three volumes The papers have been organized in the following topical sections Part I brain analysis brain analysis connectivity brain analysis cortical morphology Alzheimer disease surgical guidance and tracking computer aided interventions ultrasound image analysis cancer image analysis Part II machine learning and feature selection deep learning in medical imaging applications of machine learning segmentation cell image analysis Part III registration and deformation estimation shape modeling cardiac and vascular image analysis image reconstruction and MR image analysis Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co-opted students into their ranks to create co-responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism, improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa, feminism, worker rights and meaningful education. In-depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism, its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

Rebels and Rage Adam Habib, 2019-03-01 Adam Habib, the most prominent and outspoken university official through the recent student protests, takes a characteristically frank view of the past three years on South Africa's campuses. In this new book, Habib charts the progress of the student protests that erupted on Wits University campus in late 2015 and raged for the better part of three years, drawing on his own intimate involvement and negotiation with the students and also records university management and government responses to the events. He critically examines the student movement and individual student leaders who emerged under the banners FeesMustFall and RhodesMustFall and debates how to achieve truly progressive social change in South Africa on our campuses and off. This book is both an attempt at a historical account and a thoughtful reflection on the issues the protests kicked up from the perspective not only of a high-ranking member of university management but also Habib as a political scientist with a background as an activist during the struggle against apartheid. Habib moves between reflecting on the events of the last three years on university campuses and reimagining the future of South African higher education.
