A Simple Guide To UK Immigration Kehinde Adesina,Taiwo Adesina, Immigration Law Handbook 2013 Margaret Phelan,James Gillespie,2013-01-24 Providing an invaluable reference for immigration practitioners this book builds on the proven success of previous editions to offer the most up to date coverage of recent immigration legislation selected and annotated by experts with a wealth of practical experience Statement of changes in immigration rules Great Britain: Home Office,2012-07-19 This document is accompanied by an explanatory memorandum 7p 30 cm Dated July 2012 The changes shall take effect on 20 July 2012 United Kingdom Immigration Laws and Regulations Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Basic Laws IBP, Inc.,2016-06 United Kingdom Immigration Laws and Regulations Handbook Strategic Information and Basic Laws The work of the UK Border Agency (December 2011-March 2012) Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2012-07-23 For the first time the Committee has collated the backlog of outstanding cases in the various areas where the UK Border Agency deals with casework This report criticises the Agency for failing to conclude the total backlog of 276 460 cases The Committee makes a number of key recommendations a team should be established to examine why the 3 900 foreign national offenders living in the community as of 4 April have not been deported deportation proceedings for foreign national prisoners must begin at the time of sentencing a list of those countries refusing to accept the return of their own criminals who have committed offences in the UK must be published the Agency should expand its checks to include a wider range of databases in order to assist with tracing of those in the controlled archive students should be removed from net migration target face to face interviews for all foreign students must be compulsory the Agency must be represented at 100% not 84% of all tribunal hearings all inspection visits on Tier 4 must be unannounced the Agency must inform the informants as to possible illegal immigrants of the outcome of their tip off and provide a breakdown of the outcomes of its enforcement visits The Committee reiterates that Senior Agency staff should not receive bonuses until the Agency s performance improves and bonuses paid in the past contrary to the Committee s recommendations should be repaid North Sea Passage Pilot Garth Cooper, Readers of Imray s East Coast Pilot will need no introduction to Garth Cooper whose familiarity with North Sea passage making is evident in the practical guidance he gives Under his authorship this edition has been restructured to reflect the changing nature of passages across the North Sea As well as a consideration of the various Traffic Separation Schemes routes take into account the many new offshore windfarms and oil and gas extraction platforms As its name suggests the emphasis of this pilot is on the passage routes whether taking a more direct line between the UK and the Continent or incorporating hops along the East Coast and the adjacent coasts of France Belgium and Holland Pilotage is included for a selection of key ports Updated plans and numerous new photographs help to illustrate the key features to help guide you across this challenging yet rewarding stretch of water An Investigation Into Border Security Checks John Vine,Independent Chief Inspector of the UK

Border Agency,2012 The Chief Inspector was commissioned by the Home Secretary to investigate and report on the level of checks operated at ports of entry to the UK This followed the disclosure that some checks may have been suspended without the approval of ministers and the subsequent suspension of the then Head of Border Force The investigation focused particularly on the Home Office Warnings Index WI used to ascertain whether passengers are of interest to the government agencies Secure ID checks passengers fingerprints at immigration controls against those provided in the visa application process and the risk based measures that formed part of the level 2 pilot where it was no longer routine to open the biometric chip within EEA passports or perform WI checks of EEA children travelling in obvious family or school groups The number of occasions when checks were suspended depended on the volume of passengers the level of risk they presented staff available and the infrastructure of the ports Overall the Chief Inspector found poor communication poor managerial oversight and a lack of clarity about roles and responsibilities There was no single framework setting out all potential border security checks which of these could be suspended in what circumstances and the level of authority required at Agency or Ministerial level to do so The Agency now has a stronger grip on checks but a new framework of security checks is urgently needed unambiguously specifying checks that must always be carried out and those where there is discretion to suspend

The Work of the UK Border Agency (April-June 2012) Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2012-11-09 The Agency s backlog is growing at an alarming rate it has increased by over 25 000 cases since the first quarter of this year The backlog consists of the Migration Refusal Pool which contains records of individuals without leave to remain in the UK who cannot be traced and has grown by 24 000 records since the first quarter of this year it now totals 174 000 ex Foreign National Offenders with 3 954 ex FNOs living in the community whilst deportation action against them proceeds the so called controlled archive with cases the Agency has no control over it does not even know where the applicants are there were 95 000 cases in archive at the end of June this year and senior management promised to clear it by 31st December which would mean writing off 81 000 files Asylum and migration live cohorts where the UKBA has managed to trace an applicant thought to have been lost and is working to close their case with 29 000 cases in the live cohorts at the end of June this year The UKBA must adopt a transparent and robust approach to tackling the backlogs instead of creating new ways of camouflaging them Until the entire backlog is cleared the Committee does not believe that senior staff should receive any bonuses The Committee also doubts that the Agency is adequately equipped to deal with the increase in asylum applications Cases waiting for an initial decision after 6 months have risen by 36% since June 2011 The Committee is further concerned about the quality of decision making Poor decision making may result in people being returned home when they face persecution and torture

Work of the UK Border Agency (August - December 2011) Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2012-04-11 In this Home Affairs Committee s report into the Work of the UK Border Agency it criticises the Agency for failing to deport more than 600 foreign national prisoners who were released between

1999 and 2006 and are still in the country and for failing to clear the controlled archive of lost applicants At the current rate it will take a further 4 years to close all cases The Committee found that the Agency has still not resolved all of the asylum legacy cases first identified in 2006 Instead there are 17 000 ongoing cases still awaiting a final decision and the Agency appears to be discovering more cases The Committee remains uncertain over the feasibility of the Government's e borders timetable It finds it difficult to see how the scheme can be applied to all rail and sea passengers by December 2014 It acknowledges that the Government must have a comprehensive e border system if it is to be effective However it needs clarity on policy and practicalities for achieving this The Committee makes a series of specific recommendations aimed at improving the working of the Agency concerning appeals bogus colleges data provided and use of statistics It calls on the Home Office to act immediately to deal with the public scepticism over the effectiveness of the UK Border Agency and to require clarity in the information produced for both the public and Parliament

Bureaucracy, Law and Dystopia in the United Kingdom's Asylum System John R. Campbell, 2016-12-01 The central concern of this book is to find answers to fundamental questions about the British asylum system and how it operates Based on ethnographic research over a two year period the work follows and analyses numerous asylum appeals through the British courts It draws on myriad interviews with individuals and a thorough examination of many state and non state organizations to understand how the system works While the organization of the book reflects the formal asylum process a focus on specific legal appeals reveals the political factors at play as different institutions and actors seek to influence judicial decision making and overturn uphold official asylum policy The final chapter draws on the author's ethnographic findings of the UK's asylum field to re-examine research on the Refugee Determination System in the US, Canada and Australia which has narrowly focused on judicial decision making It argues that analysis of Refugee Determination Systems must be situated and studied as part of a wider political semi-autonomous asylum field which needs to be better understood Providing an in-depth ethnographic study of a national asylum system and of immigration law and practice the book will be an invaluable resource for academics, researchers and policy makers in the UK and beyond working in this highly topical area

White Self-Criticality beyond Anti-racism
George Yancy, 2014-10-21 White Self-Criticality beyond Anti-racism powerfully emphasizes the significance of humility, vulnerability, anxiety, questions of complicity and how being a good white is implicated in racial injustice This collection sets a new precedent for critical race scholarship and critical whiteness studies to take into consideration what it means specifically to be a white problem rather than simply restrict scholarship to the problem of white privilege and white normative invisibility Ultimately the text challenges the contemporary rhetoric of a color blind or color evasive world in a discourse that is critically engaging and sophisticated accessible and persuasive
