Monsoon Islam Sebastian R. Prange, 2018-05-03 Between the twelfth and sixteenth centuries a distinct form of Islamic thought and practice developed among Muslim trading communities of the Indian Ocean Sebastian R Prange argues that this Monsoon Islam was shaped by merchants not sultans forged by commercial imperatives rather than in battle and defined by the reality of Muslims living within non Muslim societies Focusing on India s Malabar Coast the much fabled land of pepper Prange provides a case study of how Monsoon Islam developed in response to concrete economic socio religious and political challenges Because communities of Muslim merchants across the Indian Ocean were part of shared commercial scholarly and political networks developments on the Malabar Coast illustrate a broader trans oceanic history of the evolution of Islam across monsoon Asia This history is told through four spaces that are examined in their physical manifestations as well as symbolic meanings the Port the Mosque the Palace and the Sea

Making Open Development Inclusive Matthew L. Smith, Ruhiya Kristine Seward, 2020-08-25 Drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyses of how open development has played out in practice A decade ago a significant trend toward openness emerged in international development Open development can describe initiatives as disparate as open government open health data open science open education and open innovation The theory was that open systems related to data science and innovation would enable more inclusive processes of human development This volume drawing on ten years of empirical work and research analyzes how open development has played out in practice

Biodiversity, Conservation and Sustainability in Asia Münir Öztürk, Shujaul Mulk Khan, Volkan Altay, Recep Efe, Dilfuza Egamberdieva, Furkat O. Khassanov, 2022-03-10 Of the world's seven continents Asia is the largest Its physical landscapes political units and ethnic groups are both wide ranging and many Southwest South and Middle Asia are highly populated regions which as a whole cover an extremely large area of varied geography In total this domain is unique in its plant diversity and large vegetation zones with different communities and biomes It is rich in endemics with specific and intraspecific diversity of fruit trees and medicinal plants including a number of rare high value species At the same time much of the land in the region is too dry or too rugged with many geographical extremes Overgrazing oil and mineral extraction and poaching are the major threats in the area This two volume project focuses on the dynamic biodiversity of the region with in depth analysis on phytosociology plants animals and agroecology There are also chapters that explore new applications as well as approaches to overcome problems associated with climate change Much of the research and analysis are presented here for the first time We believe this work is a valuable resource for professionals and researchers working in the fields of plant diversity and vegetation animal diversity and animal populations and geo diversity and sustainable land use among others The first volume guides our readers to West Asia and the Caucasus region while volume two focuses on issues unique to South and Middle Asia Educating for Action Roger Hopkins,2022-07-11 We live at a time when the competitive capitalist model of action has eclipsed all other contemporary social and economic models and threatens the greater cooperative good of society Neoliberalism is an attempt to reimagine governance in an age of mass democratic policies by its intention to inoculate capitalism against the threat of democracy Education for Action A Curriculum for Social Activists sees social action as a vital vehicle in challenging this intense individualistic managerial and competitive ethos Such action is a collective transformative response to capitalism which combines local activism community development and the advocacy of social political and economic rights to help committed citizens initiate stimulate and support social change at both local and global levels The book explains the methods instruments theories and practices that help educators encourage activists to build power amongst concerned individuals using a curriculum that emphasises the importance of critical theory and which is accessible to everybody and rooted in their community The author also stresses the vital role of education in helping activists resist the ideologies actions and slogans imposed on society by authoritarian powerholders while simultaneously regenerating grass roots politics and its belief in the viability of collective solidarity and social activism Humanitarian Fictions Megan Cole Paustian,2024-01-02 Humanitarianism has a narrative problem Far too often aid to Africa is envisioned through a tale of Western heroes saving African sufferers While labeling white savior narratives has become a familiar gesture it doesn't tell us much about the story as story Humanitarian Fictions aims to understand the workings of humanitarian literature as they engage with and critique narratives of Africa Overlapping with but distinct from human rights humanitarianism centers on a relationship of assistance focusing less on rights than on needs less on legal frameworks than moral ones less on the problem than on the nonstate solution Tracing the white savior narrative back to religious missionaries of the nineteenth century Humanitarian Fictions reveals the influence of religious thought on seemingly secular institutions and uncovers a spiritual collectivist streak in the discourse of humanity Because the humanitarian model of care transcends the boundaries of the state and its networks touch much of the globe Humanitarian Fictions redraws the boundaries of literary classification based on a shared problem space rather than a shared national space The book maps a transnational vein of Anglophone literature about Africa that features missionaries humanitarians and their so called beneficiaries Putting humanitarian thought in conversation with postcolonial critique this book brings together African British and U S writers typically read within separate traditions Paustian shows how the novel with its profound sensitivity to narrative can enrich the critique of white saviorism while also imagining alternatives that give African agency its due In Their Own Words C. Christine Fair,2018-12-15 This path breaking volume reveals a little known aspect of how Lashkar e Tayyaba a jihadist terrorist group functions in Pakistan and beyond by translating and commenting upon a range of publications produced and disseminated by Dar ul Andlus the publishing wing of LeT Only a fraction of LeT s cadres ever see battle most of them are despatched on nation wide prozelytising dawa missions to convert Pakistanis to their particular interpretation of Islam in support of which LeT has developed a sophisticated propagandist literature This canon of Islamist texts is the most popular and potent weapon in LeT s arsenal and its scrutiny affords insights into how and who the group recruits LeT s justification for jihad its vision of itself in global and regional politics the enemies LeT identifies and the allies it cultivates and how and where it conducts its operations Particular attention is paid to the role that LeT assigns to women by examining those writings which heap extravagant praise upon the mothers of aspirant jihadis who bless their operations and martyrdom It is only by understanding LeT s domestic functions as set out in these texts that one can begin to appreciate why Pakistan so fiercely supports it despite mounting international pressure to disband the group
