The Zulus of New York Zakes Mda, 2019-03-01

The Great Farini would stride on to the stage and announce Ladies and gentlemen and now for the highlight of the day the ferocious Zulus The impresario Farini introduced Em Pee and his troupe to his kind of show business and now they must earn their bread In 1885 in a bustling New York City they are the performers who know the true Zulu dances while all around them fraudsters perform silly jigs Reports on the Anglo Zulu War portrayed King Cetshwayo as infamous and audiences in London and New York flock to see his kin What the gawking spectators don't know is that Em Pee once carried nothing but his spear and shield when he had to flee his king But amid the city's squalid vaudeville acts appears a vision that leaves Em Pee breathless in a cage in Madison Square Park is Acol a Dinka princess on display For Em Pee it is love at first sight though Acol is not free to love anyone back The Hit Julie Weaver, 2021-11-15 Chaka the Zulu Thomas Mofolo, 1969 Zulu

Haggard, 2014-03-17 Dear Mr Stuart For twenty years I believe I am right in saying you as Assistant Secretary for Native Affairs in Natal and in other offices have been intimately acquainted with the Zulu people Moreover you are one of the few living men who have made a deep and scientific study of their language their customs and their history So I confess that I was the more pleased after you were so good as to read this tale the second book of the epic of the vengeance of Zikali the Thing that should never have been born and of the fall of the House of Senzangakona 1 when you wrote to me that it was animated by the true Zulu spirit I must admit that my acquaintance with this people dates from a period which closed almost before your day What I know of them I gathered at the time when Cetewayo of whom my volume tells was in his glory previous to the evil hour in which he found himself driven by the clamour of his regiments cut off as they were through the annexation of the Transvaal from their hereditary trade of war to match himself against the British strength I learned it all by personal observation in the seventies or from the lips of the great Shepstone my chief and friend and from my colleagues Osborn Fynney Clarke and others every one of them long since gone down Zulu Heart Shirley Graham Du Bois,1974
