Un Africain en France Clément Mvoto,2015      Report of commission VI: The home base of missions ,1910      The Migrant Canon in Twenty-First-Century France Oana Sabo,2018-04-01 The Migrant Canon in Twenty First Century France explains the causes of twenty first century global migrations and their impact on French literature and the French literary establishment A marginal genre in 1980s France since the turn of the century migrant literature has become central to criticism and publishing Oana Sabo addresses previously unanswered questions about the proliferation of contemporary migrant texts and their shifting themes and forms mechanisms of literary legitimization and notions of critical and commercial achievement Through close readings of novels by Mathias nard Milan Kundera Dany Laferrière Henri Lop s André Makine ric Emmanuel Schmitt Alice Zeniter and others and sociological analyses of their consecrating authorities including the Prix littéraire de la Porte Doré the Académie française publishing houses and online reviewers Sabo argues that these texts are best understood as cultural commodities that mediate between literary and economic forms of value academic and mass readerships and national and global literary markets By examining the latest literary texts and cultural agents not yet subjected to sufficient critical study Sabo contributes to contemporary literature cultural history migration studies and literary sociology      Transactions of the Fourth International Home Relief Congress ,1905      Sexing Political Culture in the History of France ,      The Civilizing Mission in the Metropole Amelia H. Lyons,2013-11-13 France which has the largest Muslim minority community in Europe has been in the news in recent years because of perceptions that Muslims have not integrated into French society The Civilizing Mission in the Metropole explores the roots of these debates through an examination of the history of social welfare programs for Algerian migrants from the end of World War II until Algeria gained independence in 1962 After its colonization in 1830 Algeria fought a bloody war of decolonization against France as France desperately fought to maintain control over its most prized imperial possession In the midst of this violence some 350 000 Algerians settled in France This study examines the complex and often contradictory goals of a welfare network that sought to provide services and monitor Algerian migrants activities Lyons particularly highlights family settlement and the central place Algerian women held in French efforts to transform the settled community Lyons questions myths about Algerian immigration history and exposes numerous paradoxes surrounding the fraught relationship between France and Algeria many of which echo in French debates about Muslims today      Bibliographie de la France ,1879 Bibliographie de l'Empire français ou Journal général de l'imprimerie et de la librairie      Africa's Lost Classics Lizelle Bisschoff,2017-07-05 Until recently the story of African film was marked by a series of truncated histories many outstanding films from earlier decades were virtually inaccessible and thus often excluded from critical accounts However various conservation projects since the turn of the century have now begun to make many of these films available to critics and audiences in a way that was unimaginable just a decade ago In this accessible and lively collection of essays Lizelle Bisschoff and David Murphy draw together the best scholarship on the diverse and fragmented strands of African film history Their volume recovers over 30 lost African classic films from 1920 2010 in order to provide a more complex genealogy and begin to trace new histories of African filmmaking from 1920s Egyptian melodramas through lost gems from apartheid South Africa to neglected works by great Francophone directors the full diversity of African cinema will be revealed     L'Economiste français ,1914

Exiles, Travellers and Vagabonds ,2016-10-20 Travel writing migrant writing exile writing expatriate writing and even the fictional travelling protagonists that emerge in literary works from around the globe have historically tended to depict mobility as a masculine phenomenon The presence of such genres in women s writing however poses a rich and unique body of work This volume examines the texts of Francophone women who have experienced or reflected upon the experience of transnational movement Due to the particularity of their relationship to home and the consequent impact of this on their experience of displacement the study of women s mobility opens up new questions in our understanding of the movement from place to place and in our broader understanding of colonial and postcolonial worlds Addressing the proximities and overlaps that exist between the experiences of women exiles migrants expatriates and travellers the collected essays in this book seek to challenge the usefulness relevance or validity of such terms for conceptualising today s complex patterns of transnational mobility and the gendered identities produced therein

French Orientalist Literature in Algeria, 1845–1882 Sage Goellner,2018-03-06 This book applies the growing theoretical field of hauntology to a body of literature which has previously been examined through the lenses of Orientalism and exoticism Through a chronological study and close readings of the writings of Th ophile Gautier Eug ne Fromentin Gustave Flaubert and Pierre Loti the project identifies haunting echoes within the texts which demonstrate an ambivalence of attitudes towards colonialism and which undermine any claim towards a monolithic imperialist French ideology Whereas hauntological theory has been used to illuminate literature from the Francophone post colonial period it has not yet been applied to texts produced during the French colonial period The originality of this project thus lies in the application of Derridean hauntological theory to works from an earlier period each of which in one way or another addresses the theme of colonial violence By revisiting four classic works of colonial Orientalism with haunting as a principal theme this analysis provides a critical witnessing of France s violent colonization of Algeria that demonstrates France s latent anxieties about the colonial project at the time
