The Dictator Novel Magalí Armillas-Tiseyra, 2019-07-15 Where there are dictators there are novels about dictators But dictator novels do not simply respond to the reality of dictatorship As this genre has developed and cohered it has acquired a self generating force distinct from its historical referents The dictator novel has become a space in which writers consider the difficulties of national consolidation explore the role of external and global forces in sustaining dictatorship and even interrogate the political functions of writing itself Literary representations of the dictator therefore provide ground for a self conscious and self critical theorization of the relationship between writing and politics itself The Dictator Novel positions novels about dictators as a vital genre in the literatures of the Global South Primarily identified with Latin America the dictator novel also has underacknowledged importance in the postcolonial literatures of francophone and anglophone Africa Although scholars have noted similarities this book is the first extensive comparative analysis of these traditions it includes discussions of authors including Gabriel Garc a M rquez Ng g wa Thiong o Alejo Carpentier Augusto Roa Bastos Domingo Faustino Sarmiento Jos M rmol Esteban Echeverr a Ousmane Semb ne Chinua Achebe Aminata Sow Fall Henri Lop s Sony Labou Tansi and Ahmadou Kourouma This juxtaposition illuminates the internal dynamics of the dictator novel as a literary genre In so doing Armillas Tiseyra puts forward a comparative model relevant to scholars working across the Global South

Prusek,1970-12-31 The studies contained in this volume arose over the last thirty years Originally the range of the materials I intended to include in my selection was very much wider Publishing difficulties however have obliged me to curtail them to something less than half the planned content At first I intended to include all the studies I supposed might be of interest to readers and represent contributions still of some significance for research in this domain of Oriental scholarship When the necessity arose to limit the contents I gave preference to the standpoint of thematic completeness rather than to what would be of interest to the general reader Thus in this volume I have confined myself to two thematic fields only Old Chinese literature and studies dealing with mediaeval storytellers productions hua pen I have excluded the whole complex of historical studies and all studies relating to the new literature I am now preparing on the principal historical theme on which I was engaged already in the period of my studies in Prague under Prof J Bidlo and then in 1928 till 1930 with Prof B Karlgren in Sweden and Prof G Haloun in Halle in Germany a more compendious study in which I hope to sum up the results of my research and I also intend to publish a volume of selected studies dealing with the New Chinese literature at some later date Voyage de Polyélète Alexandre Étienne Guillaume Théis,1843
