Un Autre Islam Inde Pakistan Bangladesh:

Identity, Conflict and Politics in Turkey, Iran and Pakistan Gilles Dorronsoro, Olivier Grojean, 2018-06-15 Ethnic and religious identity markers compete with class and gender as principles shaping the organization and classification of everyday life But how are an individual's identity based conflicts transformed and redefined Identity is a specific form of social capital hence contexts where multiple identities obtain necessarily come with a hierarchy with differences and hence with a certain degree of hostility The contributors to this book examine the rapid transformation of identity hierarchies affecting Iran Pakistan and Turkey a symptom of political fractures social economic transformation and new regimes of subjectification They focus on the state's role in organizing access to resources with its institutions often being the main target of demands rather than competing social groups Such contexts enable entrepreneurs of collective action to exploit identity differences which in turn help them to expand the scale of their mobilization and to align local and national conflicts The authors also examine how identity based violence may be autonomous in certain contexts and serve to prime collective action and transform the relations between communities

The Dynamics of Sunni-Shia Relationships Sabrina Mervin, Rainer Brunner, Jean-François Legrain, Joseph Alagha, Reidar Visser, Thomas Pierret, Roel Meijer, Joas Wagemakers, Stéphane A. Dudoignon, Farian Sabahi, Mariam Abou Zahab, Bayram Balci, Altay Goyushov, Brecht De Smet, 2013-05-29 Sheds light on the political sociological and ideological processes that are affecting the dynamics of Sunni Shia relations

The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot, 2016-06-16 The idea of Pakistan stands riddled with tensions Initiated by a small group of select Urdu speaking Muslims who envisioned a unified Islamic state today Pakistan suffers the divisive forces of various separatist movements and religious fundamentalism A small entrenched elite continue to dominate the country's corridors of power and democratic forces and legal institutions remain weak But despite these seemingly insurmountable problems the Islamic Republic of Pakistan continues to endure The Pakistan Paradox is the definitive history of democracy in Pakistan and its survival despite ethnic strife Islamism and deepseated elitism This edition focuses on three kinds of tensions that are as old as Pakistan itself The tension between the unitary definition of the nation inherited from Jinnah and centrifugal ethnic forces between civilians and army officers who are not always in favour of or against democracy and between the Islamists and those who define Islam only as a cultural identity marker

The Baluch, Sunnism and the State in Iran Stéphane A. Dudoignon, 2017-09-01 This fascinating study explores the emergence of a significant Sunni community on the margins of Shia Iran and delineates a Sunni arc stretching from Central Asia southwards through the Iranian provinces of Khorasan and Baluchistan

Culture persane et médecine ayurvédique en Asie du Sud Fabrizio Speziale, 2018-02-27 Cet ouvrage traite des interactions entre l'Ayurveda et la culture médicale persane en Asie du sud Il pr

sente pour la première fois une étude du mouvement de traduction en persan des sources ayurvédiques qui a eu lieu partir du XIV^e siècle. L'image de la culture ayurvédique qui émerge partir des traités persans offre un nouvel éclairage sur l'histoire de l'Ayurveda. L'époque de l'hégémonie politique musulmane. Les traités persans appliquent de nouvelles catégories. L'analyse des matériaux traduits et ils transforment les modalités de présentation du savoir ayurvédique. En parallèle l'ouvrage de Fabrizio Speziale aborde le phénomène symétrique de persanisation de l'univers intellectuel des médecins hindous qui travers l'apprentissage du persan s'approprient des connaissances médicales de la culture musulmane. This book looks at the interactions between Ayurveda and Persian medical culture in South Asia. It presents for the first time a study of the translation movement of Ayurvedic sources into Persian which took place from the 14th century onwards. The image of Ayurvedic culture emerging from Persian texts provides a new insight into the history of Ayurveda under Muslim political hegemony in South Asia. Persian treatises apply new categories to the analysis of translated materials and transform the way Ayurvedic knowledge is presented. At the same time Fabrizio Speziale's book deals with the symmetric phenomenon of Persianization of the Hindu physicians who through the learning of Persian language appropriated medical knowledge of Muslim culture.

Islam and Politics in Indonesia Remy Madinier, 2015-08-31. The Masyumi Party which was active in Indonesia from 1945 to 1960 constitutes the boldest attempt to date at reconciling Islam and democracy. Masyumi proposed a vision of society and government which was not bound by a literalist application of Islamic doctrine but rather inspired by the values of Islam. It set out moderate policies which were both favourable to the West and tolerant towards other religious communities in Indonesia. Although the party made significant strides towards the elaboration of a Muslim democracy its achievements were nonetheless precarious: it was eventually outlawed in 1960 for having resisted Sukarno's slide towards authoritarianism and the refusal of Suharto's regime to reinstate the party left its leaders disenchanted and marginalised. Many of those leaders subsequently turned to a form of Islam known as integralism, a radical doctrine echoing certain characteristics of 19th century Catholic integralism which contributed to the advent of Muslim neo-fundamentalism in Indonesia. This book examines the Masyumi Party from its roots in early 20th century Muslim reformism to its contemporary legacy and offers a perspective on political Islam which provides an alternative to the more widely studied model of Middle Eastern Islam. The party's experience teaches us much about the fine line separating a moderate form of Islam open to democracy and a certain degree of secularisation from the sort of religious intransigence which can threaten the country's denominational coexistence.

China and India in Central Asia Sébastien Peyrouse, 2010-11-08. This book looks at how China and India's growing interests in Central Asia disrupt the traditional Russia-U.S. Great Game at the heart of the old continent. In the years to come both Asian powers are looking to redeploy their rivalry on the Central Asian and Afghan theatres on a geopolitical but also political and economic level.

The Transformation of Tajikistan John Heathershaw, Edmund Herzig, 2013-09-13. Tajikistan is one of the lesser known and least researched former Soviet Central Asian republics. The birth of the new state in 1991 was followed closely by a civil war which killed more than 50 000 people and displaced many tens of thousands more While a peace agreement was signed in 1997 significant political violence continued until 2001 and intermittent outbreaks still occur today Many claim it remains a very weak state and perhaps in danger of state failure or a return to civil war However the revival of Tajikistan should not simply be seen in terms of its post conflict stabilization Since its creation as a republic of the Soviet Union in 1920s Tajikistan has been transformed from being a shell for socialist engineering to become a national society under a modern state Despite a multitude of economic social and political shocks the Republic of Tajikistan endures This book places the transformation of Tajikistan in its Soviet and Post Soviet historical settings and local and global contexts It explores the sources of a state with Soviet roots but which has been radically transformed by independence and its exposure to global politics and economics The authors address the sources of statehood in history Islam and secularism gender relations the economy international politics and security affairs This book is a new edition of a special issue of Central Asian Survey Tajikistan the sources of statehood including two additional papers and a revised introduction Allah's Kolkhozes Christian Noack,Stephane A.
