Koch, 2002 Literature and Painting In Quebec William J. Berg, 2013-02-04 This unique study explores how Quebec's landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as Cartier and Champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province William J. Berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a Québécois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of British and American influences Focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation Literature and Painting in Quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of French Canadian nationhood As such Literature and Painting in Quebec presents a new perspective to approach the notion of national identity a quest that few groups have engaged in more persistently than the Québécois

The Abject Object Keith Reader,2022-04-19 This book addresses representations and constructions of masculinity in crisis in contemporary French culture by way of two important concepts the phallus largely but not solely in a Lacanian sense and abjection Kristeva Scrutiny of these concepts informs readings of a number of texts literary Bataille Adamov Doubrovsky Houellebecq Rochefort Angot and cinematic Ferreri Eustache Godard No Bonello in which the abject phallus is a significant factor The texts chosen all describe or stage crises of masculinity and mastery in ways that suggest that these supposedly beneficent qualities and the phallus that symbolizes them can often be perceived as burdensome or even detestable Abjection is a widely used concept in contemporary cultural studies but has not hitherto been articulated with the phallus as emblem of male dominance as it is here The volume will be of interest to those working in the areas of French gender and film studies Pushkin and Romantic Fashion Monika Greenleaf,1994 Pushkin and Romantic Fashion is about the interpenetration of culture and personality specifically Alexander I s Russian Empire a latecomer in post Napoleonic European history and Aleksandr Pushkin virtuoso improvisor yet prisoner of the Golden Age discourses that now bear his name It focuses on Pushkin s use of the Romantic fragment especially the link between the fragment and Romantic irony s fundamental and modern questioning of the sources and intentionality of language In the view of such irony s most eloquent formulator Friedrich Schlegel identity does not precede speech but is forged in each improvisational interaction with interlocutor or reader One finds out who one is by speaking and all utterances and texts stand in a fragmentary contingent relation to an accumulating life text Pushkin may actually come closest of all major European poets to realizing what Schlegel prescribed or diagnosed as the poetics of modernity not because of any direct links but because as common latecomers on the European cultural scene Russian and German writers shared a fascination with European fashions and an ironic talent for conflating or stepping outside them Thus Pushkin s kaleidoscopic explorations of fashionable European genres from Augustan erotic elegy to the archaic Greek lyric fragment from the Byronic Oriental poetic tale to Shakespearean chronicle drama from the modern society tale to the Walter Scott historical novel can be seen as ever more dramatic rewritings of and meditations on a previous life text This fragmentary and ironic self presentation has ensured that every generation of Pushkin readers no matter how gilded with cultural authority the poet became talked back The author is deeply concerned to embed Pushkin in a larger European context in a way critically consonant with the best in Western Romantic studies She locates Pushkin s penchant for fragmentary structures in a European discourse of fragmentation revealing Notice sur Montpellier ...
