Un Papillon Dans La Cité:

Gisèle Pineau - Un papillon dans la cité Ladina Blum, 2001 Un papillon dans la cité Gisele Pineau, 2016-01-08 Quand Felicie apprend qu'elle va retrouver sa mère en France elle comprend vite qu'il va falloir laisser seule sa grand-mère Man Ya qui l'a élevée. Quand dans une cité de la banlieue parisienne elle fait la connaissance de sa mère de Papa Jo et de son nouveau petit frère elle supporte un peu mieux sa nouvelle vie. Quand elle se lie d'amitié avec un camarade de classe venu lui aussi d'ailleurs elle ne rêve que d'une chose lui faire connaître son lointain. Un roman plein de tendresse d'humour et se sensibilise qui enchante aussi bien les jeunes que leurs aînés.

Fictions of Childhood Marjorie Salvodan, 2008-01-01 Fictions of Childhood explores the complexity of French identity in writings that focus on the experience of children. Nina Bouraoui, Linda L. and Gisèle Pineau, French writers of Algerian, Vietnamese, and Guadelupean origin respectively, are discussed within the text because of their use of educational and familial contexts to explore the meanings of childhood in fiction. In their role as literary double agents who view French identity against the grain, these three writers perceive French identity from multiple angles. The selected texts counter preconceived notions about children and childhood in their portrayal of child narrator protagonist, mostly girl children who make prophetic revelations. They are marginalized schoolchildren who denounce French society and institutions for failing them, children who cross the boundaries of gender and sexuality, and children of the French empire who tell French colonial and post-colonial history from their unique perspectives. The current crisis in French universalism is mirrored in the literary portrayal of child figures as victors and victims because these representations make visible the relational dynamic between France and her former colonies which underlie the silenced history of colonialism and post-colonialism that continues to define French identity.

Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi, 2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa, the Caribbean, and South Asia, regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common. But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken, Francophone literatures tend to deal with a similar spread of issues. This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a comparative project in which post-colonial Francophone cultures and the specific alterity of these cultures emerge as inextricable from and essential to an understanding of modern France. The volume is organized by region with an international roster of contributions and includes summaries of selected creative and critical works and a guide to selected terms and figures.

L'auto-exotisme dans les littératures des Antilles françaises Nathalie Schon, 2003-01-01 Les textes réalisés sur les littératures des Antilles françaises s'inscrivent souvent dans le cadre des relations présentes et passées entre la France et les Antilles. Cette approche est d'ailleurs pertinente si l'on considère l'histoire commune. Cependant, elle a l'inconvénient de présenter toute différence avec la littérature métropolitaine comme spécifique aux Antilles, gommant de la sorte les convergences ou divergences que les littératures antillaises entretiennent entre elles. D'autre part, la Martinique et la Guadeloupe, les départements français et groupes des

Food and Culture Carole Counihan, Penny Van Esterik, Alice Julier, 2018-12-07 This innovative and global best seller helped establish food studies courses throughout the social sciences and humanities when it was first published in 1997 The fourth edition of Food and Culture contains favorite articles from earlier editions and several new pieces on food politics globalism agriculture and race and gender identity

Nomadic Food Jean Pierre Williot, Isabelle Bianquis, 2019-10-10 In this book contributors examine the many meanings of the term nomad through the study of food habits Food and beverage products have become just as nomadic as other objects such as telephones and computers whereas in the past only food and money were able to move about with their carriers Food industries have seized control of this trend to make it the characteristic feature of consumption outside the home always faster and more convenient the just in time meal what I want when I want where I want snacks finger food and street food The terms reveal the contemporary modernity and spread of food practices but they are only modified versions of older and more uncommon forms of behavior Mobility in the sense of multiple forms of moving about using public or individual and possibly intermodal means of transport on spatial scales and temporal rhythms which are frequent and recurring but variable responding to professional or leisure needs can serve as a basic premise in order to gain insight into the concept of food nomadism
