National Report of Sierra Leone for the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development ,1992 The Law Reports of the Special Court for Sierra Leone Charles Chernor Jalloh, Simon Meisenberg, 2016-03-11 The Special Court for Sierra Leone was established through signature of a bilateral treaty between the United Nations and the Government of Sierra Leone in early 2002 making it the third modern ad hoc international criminal tribunal The tribunal has tried various persons including former Liberian President Charles Ghankay Taylor for allegedly bearing greatest responsibility for serious violations of international humanitarian law committed during the latter half of the Sierra Leonean armed conflict It completed its work in December 2013 A new Residual Special Court for Sierra Leone based in Freetown and with offices in The Hague has been created to carry out its essential residual functions This volume which consists of three books and a CD ROM and is edited by two legal experts on the Sierra Leone court presents for the first time in a single place a comprehensive collection of all the interlocutory decisions and final trial and appeals judgments issued by the court in the case Prosecutor v Charles Ghankay Taylor The Taylor case is the jewel in the crown of the SCSL as it was the first ever trial and conviction of a former African head of state for crimes committed in a neighboring state It is also one of a handful of such significant cases in international criminal law The Taylor Law Report contains the full text of all substantive judicial decisions including the majority separate and concurring as well as dissenting opinions and probably the longest trial judgment ever issued by an international criminal court It additionally provides relevant information for a better understanding of the case such as the indictments a list of admitted exhibits and a list of documents on the case file This book set which is the third in a series of edited law reports that follows volume 1 on Prosecutor v Brima Kamara and Kanu the so called AFRC case published in November 2012 and volume 2 Prosecutor v Norman Fofana and Kondewa the CDF case published in March 2014 seeks to capture the entire jurisprudential legacy of the tribunal fills the gap for a single and authoritative reference source of the tribunal s jurisprudence These law reports the last volumes of which will be published in 2015 and 2016 are intended for national and international judges lawyers academics students and other researchers as well as transitional justice practitioners in courts tribunals and truth commissions as well as anyone seeking an accurate record of the trials conducted by the Special Court for Sierra Leone N B The hardback copy of this title contains a CD ROM with the scanned decisions that are reproduced in the book and the trial transcripts The e book version does not Buy the complete set of 4 volumes 10 books in total with a discount see isbn 978 90 04 22161 1 The complete set consists of Volume 1 isbn 9789004189119 2 books Volume 2 isbn 9789004221635 2 books Volume 3 isbn 9789004221673 3 books Volume 4 isbn 9789004221659 3 books The Human Rights Field Operation Professor Michael O'Flaherty, 2013-01-28 This volume assesses the development of human rights field operations of the United Nations and other intergovernmental organizations It makes a substantial contribution to the debate and understanding with regard to the sector's underlying doctrine The book

unprecedented in its scope addresses the range of aspects of the nature role and activities of field operations It draws together the reflections of academics policy makers and field practitioners Its analysis is located within the context of applicable normative and ethical frameworks assessment of former and current practice and examination of complementary and analogous experiences The book will be an essential resource for all those actively involved in human rights field work as The Legal Legacy of the Special well as for policy makers and academics and students involved in human rights research Court for Sierra Leone Charles Jalloh, 2020-07-16 Explores how the first treaty based UN international tribunal s judges innovatively applied the law to perpetrators of international crimes in one of the worst conflicts in recent history Sierra Leone Special Court and its Legacy Charles Jalloh, 2014 The Special Court for Sierra Leone SCSL is the third modern international criminal tribunal supported by the United Nations and the first to be situated where the crimes were committed This timely important and comprehensive book is the first to critically assess the impact and legacy of the SCSL for Africa and international criminal law Contributors include leading scholars and respected practitioners with inside knowledge of the tribunal who analyze cutting edge and controversial issues with significant implications for international criminal law and transitional justice These include joint criminal enterprise forced marriage enlisting and using child soldiers attacks against United Nations peacekeepers the tension between truth commissions and criminal trials in the first country to simultaneously have the two and the questions of whether it is permissible under international law for states to unilaterally confer blanket amnesties to local perpetrators of universally condemned international crimes The Militarisation of Peacekeeping in the Twenty-First Century James Sloan, 2011-11-01 Since the end of the last century UN peacekeeping has undergone a fundamental and largely unexamined change Peacekeeping operations long expected to use force only in self defence and to act impartially are now increasingly relied upon by the Security Council as a means to maintain and restore security within a country The operations are established under Chapter VII of the UN Charter and some are empowered to use all necessary measures language traditionally reserved for enforcement operations Through a close examination of these twenty first century peacekeeping operations including operations in Sierra Leone the Democratic Republic of the Congo Liberia C te d Ivoire Haiti and the Darfur region of the Sudan the book shows that they are for the most part fundamentally ill suited to the enforcement type tasks being asked of them The operations which are under funded under equipped and whose troops are under trained frequently lurch from crisis to crisis There is scant evidence some 10 years on that matters are likely to improve The book argues that bestowing enforcement type functions on a peacekeeping operation is misconceived Such operations are likely to be unsuccessful in their enforcement type tasks thereby causing serious damage to the excellent reputation of UN peacekeeping and the UN more broadly In addition because such operations are more likely to be perceived as partial their ability to carry out traditional non forceful peacekeeping tasks may be impeded Finally the Security Council's practice of charging peacekeeping operations with enforcement functions lessens

the pressure on the Council to work to establish genuine enforcement operations ie operations that are considerably better suited to restoring peace and security Dr Sloan is able to show in knowledgeable detail not only what has changed over the years but also what has brought these changes about His analysis leads him to offer not only well informed insights but critical observations too This book is a pleasing combination of detailed scrutiny of topics already familiar provisional measures consent so called Chapter VI1 2 action implied powers and a rigorous questioning as to their place in or indeed relevance at all to militarised peacekeeping The reader will find much new terrain traversed and plenty of out of the box thinking From the foreword by Dame Rosalyn Higgins The Political Economy of Civil War and UN Peace Operations Mats Berdal, Jake Sherman, 2023-03-31 This book examines the operational and political challenges facing UN peace operations deployed in countries where civil war and protracted violence have given rise to the complex and distinctive political economies of conflict The volume explores the nature and impact of such political economies informal systems of power and influence formed by the interaction of local national and region wide war economies with the political agendas of conflict actors on the course of UN peace operations It focuses in detail on the UN s long running peace operations in the Democratic Republic of Congo South Sudan Afghanistan Sierra Leone Mali and Somalia The book is centrally concerned with the interaction of UN missions with the power structures and local conflict dynamics that shape individual mission settings and the challenges these pose for mediation protection of civilians and other tasks It also offers a critical assessment of the various ways in which the UN system from its headquarters in New York to the field has confronted the policy challenges posed by political economies of conflict affected states societies and regions It advances a pragmatic set of policy recommendations aimed at improving the UN s ability to confront predatory and exploitative war economies At the same time the volume makes it clear that political and institutional obstacles to more effective UN action are certain to remain profound and are unlikely ever to be fully overcome let alone eradicated Despite making some progress since the 1990s to better understand the political economy of civil wars the UN has struggled with how to tackle informal networks of power and their consequences for efforts to end wars The book will be of special interest to students of war and conflict studies statebuilding political economy of conflict UN interventionism and peacebuilding and IR Security in general Policing in Africa D. bring together leading scholars and senior practitioners in order to provide overviews and analyses of all 65 peacekeeping operations that have been carried out by the United Nations since 1948 As with all Oxford Handbooks the volume will be agenda setting in importance providing the authoritative point of reference for all those working throughout international Roads to Reconciliation Elin Skaar, Siri Gloppen, Astri Suhrke, 2005-03-22 The past two decades have witnessed the end of several civil wars and authoritarian regimes In a period shaped by the ideal of democratization in which more countries are emerging from deep rooted conflicts international attention is turning to the question of how societies with a grievous past face issues of accountability and reconciliation How do societies deal with a past characterized by gross human rights violations What kinds of processes judicial as well as non judicial are most likely to generate a sense of reconciliation Using an interdisciplinary approach this book provides a systematic and comparative analysis of reconciliation processes in various societies that in recent years have made a transition from authoritarian to democratic rule or from war to relative peace Revisiting case studies from Latin America Africa Europe and Asia through a lens of comparative analysis shedding new light on how societies have dealt with their violent pasts Roads to Reconciliation is essential reading for both scholars and practitioners concerned with human rights transitional justice or peace building Justice for Crimes Against Humanity Mark Lattimer, Philippe Sands, 2003-11-27 The aim of this book is to assess recent developments in international law seeking to bring an end to impunity by bringing to justice those accused of war crimes and crimes against humanity The book was originally conceived while the editors were engaged in different capacities in proceedings relating to the detention of Senator Pinochet in London The vigorous public debate that attended that case and related developments in international criminal justice such as the creation of the International Criminal Court and the trial of former President Milosevic demonstrate the close connections between the law and wider political or moral questions In the field of international criminal justice there appeared therefore a clear need to distinguish legal from essentially political issues promoting the application of the law in an impartial and apolitical manner while at the same time enabling each to legitimately inform the development of the other The essays in this volume written by internationally recognised legal experts scholars practitioners judges explore a wide range of subjects including immunities justice in international and mixed courts justice in national courts and in a particularly practical section perspectives offered by experienced practitioners in the field This is a welcome collection of papers on criminal justice both at the international and the national level a book which fills many gaps and adds considerable value by discussing wider policy and moral issues it is to be recommended to all who are interested in the development of international criminal justice Elizabeth Wilmshurst International Affairs Peacebuilding and Rule of Law in Africa Chandra Lekha Sriram, Olga Martin-Ortega, Johanna Herman, 2010-10-04 This text brings together expert practitioners and scholars in African politics law and conflict and peacebuilding to examine the expanding international efforts to promote rule of law in countries emerging from violent conflict focusing specifically upon experiences in Africa The Legacy of Nuremberg David A. Blumenthal, Timothy L. H. McCormack, 2008 In this new collection of essays the editors assess the legacy of the Nuremberg Trial asking whether the Trial really did have a civilising influence or if it constituted little more than institutionalised vengeance Three essays focus particularly on the historical context and involve rich analysis of for example the atmospherics of the Trial itself and the attitudes of German society at the time to the conduct of the Trial The majority of the essays deal with the contemporary legacies of the Nuremberg Trial and attempt to assess the ongoing relevance of the Judgment itself and of the principles encapsulated in it Some essays consider the importance of the principle of individual criminal responsibility under international law and argue that the international community has to some extent failed to fulfil the promise of Nuremberg in the decades since the Trial Other essays focus on contemporary application of aspects of the substantive law of Nuremberg particularly the international crime of aggression the law of military occupation and the use of the crime of conspiracy as an alternative basis of criminal responsibility. The collection also includes essays analysing the nature and operation of a number of international criminal tribunals since Nuremberg including the permanent International Criminal Court The final grouping of essays focus on the impact of the Nuremberg Trial on Australia examining in particular Australia s post World War Two war crimes trials of Japanese defendants Australia s extensive national case law on Article 1 F of the Refugee Convention and Australia s national implementing legislation for the Rome Statute Advocacy and Change in International Organizations Kseniya Oksamytna, 2023-09-14 How do international organizations change Many organizations expand into new areas or abandon programmes of work Advocacy and Change in International Organizations argues that they do so not only at the collective direction of member states Advocacy is a crucial but overlooked source of change in international organizations Different actors can advocate for change national diplomats international bureaucrats external experts or civil society activists They can use one of three advocacy strategies social pressure persuasion and authority talk The success of each strategy depends on the presence of favourable conditions related to characteristics of advocates targets issues and context Institutionalization of new issues in international organizations as a multi stage process often accompanied by contestation This book demonstrates how the advocacy focused framework explains the origins of three workstreams of contemporary UN peacekeeping operations communication protection and reconstruction The issue of strategic communications was promoted by UN officials through the strategy of persuasion Protection of civilians emerged due to a partially successful social influence campaign by a coalition of elected Security Council members and a subsequent and successful persuasion efforts by Canada Quick impact projects entered peacekeepers practice as the result of authority talk by an expert panel The three issues illustrate the diversity of pathways to change in international organizations representing the top down bottom up and outside in pathways Moreover they have achieved different degrees of institutionalization in UN s policies structures and frameworks protection of civilians is the most institutionalized as evidenced by measures to hold peacekeepers accountable for non implementation while quick impact projects are the least institutionalized Sierra Leone Brett Sillinger, 2003 The small underdeveloped countries of Africa seem to harbour all the flammable elements necessary to ignite civil wars and revolutions Since 1991 the small West African country of Sierra Leone has been besieged by the Revolutionary United Front RUF a guerrilla group cum political party that implored a radical populist political agenda The cause of this conflict was the growth of systemic government corruption in the decades following the 1961 independence which ultimately led to a severe deterioration of the state governing capacity The contention over the control of the country's vast mineral wealth which includes diamonds as well as foreign interference notably from the Liberian government with which the RUF reportedly traded diamonds for arms further fuelled the struggle The 1999 Lom Peace Accord brought about an end to the conflict RUF leadership changes and a cease fire agreement in 2000 followed by conflict resolution meetings between government RUF and UN officials also contributed to a more peaceful situation in Sierra Leone This book explores the struggle facing the people of Sierra Leone in adopting to these new changes as well as the UN s sponsored disarmament efforts and electoral support for the new government The hand that the United States has had in delivering humanitarian assistance to this country will be examined as well as the efforts made to try those guilty of crimes against humanity Crimes and International Law Josepha Close, 2019-05-16 Amnesty Serious Crimes and International Law examines the permissibility of amnesties for serious crimes in the contemporary international order In the last few decades there has been a growing tendency to consider that amnesties are prohibited in respect of certain grave crimes However the question remains controversial as there is no explicit treaty ban and general amnesties continue to be frequently issued in post conflict and transitional contexts The first part of the book explores the use of amnesties from antiquity to the present day It reviews amnesty traditions in ancient societies and provides a global picture of modern amnesties. In parallel it traces the development of the accountability paradigm underpinning the current prohibitive stance on amnesties The second part assesses the position of modern international law on amnesties It comprehensively analyses the main arguments supporting the existence of a general amnesty ban including the duty to prosecute international crimes the right to redress of victims of human rights violations international standards and trends in state practice and the mandate of international criminal courts The book argues that while international legal or policy requirements restrict the freedom of states to extend amnesty in respect of serious crimes or the effectiveness of amnesty measures in preventing the prosecution of such crimes these restrictions do not add up to an absolute and universal prohibition Regulating Transnational Corporations in Domestic and International Regimes Evaristus Oshionebo, 2009-01-01 This study explores the range of strategies for regulating the social and environmental practices of TNCs in Africa's extractive industries
