The Mobile Learning Voyage - From Small Ripples to Massive Open Waters Tom H. Brown, Herman J. van der Merwe, 2015-10-14 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Mobile and Contextual Learning mLearn 2015 held in a cruise ship leaving from and arriving to Venice Italy in October 2015 The 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions The papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference The mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters The conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously paving the way for the broad and open waters ahead with new developments and progress in mobile learning and emerging ambient technologies Models for Solid Oxide Fuel Cell Systems Dario Marra, Cesare Pianese, Pierpaolo Polverino, Marco Sorrentino, 2016-03-07 This book presents methodologies suitable for the optimal design of control and diagnosis strategies for Solid Oxide Fuel Cell SOFC systems One key feature of the methodologies presented is the use of modeling tools with an ideal balance between accuracy and computational burden Particular emphasis is given to the useful combination of models within a hierarchical framework to reduce the experimental efforts required for characterization and testing Such tools are proven to be highly effective for SOFC systems destined for both residential and transportation applications Throughout the book optimization is always conceived in such a way so as to allow the SOFC systems to work efficiently while guaranteeing safe thermal operation as well as an extended lifetime This book is aimed at scientists and engineers involved in the design of marketable SOFC systems It gathers the knowledge and experience derived from other research and industry practice for which control and diagnosis have proven to be the main keys to success and market penetration Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Rankings and the Reshaping of Higher Education Ellen Hazelkorn, 2015-03-23 University rankings have gained popularity around the world and are now a significant factor shaping reputation This second edition updates Ellen Hazelkorn's first comprehensive study of rankings from a global perspective drawing in new original research and extensive analysis It is essential reading for policymakers managers and scholars Corrupted Jonathan D Jansen, 2023-02-01 In South African higher education the images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly Decolonizing Mission Partnerships Taylor Walters Denyer, 2020-06-26 We all know that healthy partnerships are essential to fruitful boundary crossing ministries but how exactly do we create them What barriers must be overcome and what self examination must we do How do the legacies of colonialism racism and unhealed trauma impact missional collaborations today In this doctoral thesis Denyer reflects on these questions as she examines the history of relational dynamics between American and Congolese United Methodists in the North Katanga Conference DR Congo By surveying memoirs magazines and journals and conducting in depth interviews Denyer presents a complex and multifaceted example of a partnership that is in the process of decolonizing More than just a history lesson Decolonizing Mission Partnerships presents the questions hard truths pitfalls and toxic assumptions we must face when attempting to be in mission together Image Analysis Rasmus R. Paulsen, Kim S.
