topic aimed at advanced students and practitioners      Policing the 2012 London Olympics Gary Armstrong, Richard Giulianotti, Dick Hobbs, 2016-06-17 The summer Olympic Games are renowned for producing the world's biggest single city cultural event. While the Olympics and other sport mega events have received growing levels of academic investigation from a variety of disciplinary approaches, relatively little is known about how such occasions are experienced directly by local host communities and publics. This ethnography examines the everyday policing of the London Borough of Newham in relation to the London 2012 Olympics. It explains how police defined, monitored, prioritized, contained, and investigated Olympic-related crime and how Olympic-related policing connected to the policing of Newham. The authors examine how the threat of terrorism impacted on the everyday policing of the 2012 Olympics as well as the exaggeration of other threats to the Games such as youth gangs for political reasons. The book also explores local resistance to Olympic policing and the legacy of the Games with regard to policing, local housing, demographics, and social exclusion. Discussing the lessons that can be learned for the future staging of sporting mega events, this book will appeal to scholars and students with interests in sport, policing, crime, and criminology, mega events, event management, urban studies, global studies, and sociology      The London Corn Circular, 1928      The Times Index, 2013-02 Indexes the Times Sunday Times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Time educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement      The Commercial and Financial Chronicle, 1929      George Broomhall's Corn Trade News, 1899      Anatomy of State Capture Nina Callaghan, Robyn Foley, Mark Swilling, 2021-11-26 Following the release of the Public Protector's State of Capture Report in November 2016, South Africans have been witness to an explosion of almost daily revelations of corruption, mismanagement, and abuses by those entrusted to lead the nation. The extent of this betrayal is overwhelming, and it is often difficult to distill what actually happened during the Zuma administration. This book draws on the insights and expertise of 19 contributors from various sectors and disciplines to provide an account of what transpired at strategic sites of the state capture project. The ongoing threat of state capture demands a response that probes beyond what happened to understanding how it was allowed to happen. The stubborn culture of corruption and misgovernance continues to manifest unabated, and the predatory practices which enable state capture have not yet been disrupted. It is our hope that the various case studies and analyses presented in this book will contribute to confronting these shortcomings in current discourse and open avenues for progressive deliberation on how to collectively reclaim the prospects of a just and prosperous South Africa for all      The Network Reshapes the Library Lorcan Dempsey, 2014-08-18 Since he began posting in 2003, Dempsey has used his blog to explore nearly every important facet of library technology from the emergence of Web 2.0 as a concept to open source ILS tools and the push to web-scale library management systems. More than just a commentary on the issue of the moment, the more than 1,800 posts have offered thousands of readers valuable perspective and insight as well as a visionary approach to libraries' future. In a compendium that library planners, administrators, and technology staff will find endlessly stimulating Varum offers an expertly curated selection of entries from Dempsey's blog Showing where libraries have been in the last decade and also where they're heading now this book covers such keystone topics as Networked resources Network organization The research process and libraries evolving role featuring the seminal post In the Flow Resource discovery Library systems and tools such as search indices and OpenURL link resolvers Data and metadata Publishing and communication including blogs social media and scholarly communication Libraries archives museums and galleries as memory institutions The book concludes with a selection of favorites hand picked by Dempsey himself As one university librarian put it Dempsey's dual ability to explore an issue and to reveal the higher order trends is spot on for understanding our volatile environment That unique and thoughtful analysis is on full display in this book

Dearing and Beyond Ann Hodgson, Ken (both of Institute of Education Spours, 2014-03-18 Focuses on the 14 19 curriculum and qualification debates around the Dearing Review It identifies the main parameters of this area of policy development for the future and argues strongly for a staged process to reform which ultimately leads to a unified 14 19 qualifications system Bradstreet's, 1922 Tasman's Psychiatry Allan Tasman, Michelle B.
