A Simple Guide To UK Immigration Kehinde Adesina, Taiwo Adesina, The African Christian Diaspora Afe Adogame, 2013-04-25 The last three decades have witnessed a rapid proliferation of African Christian communities particularly in Europe and North American diaspora thus resulting in the remapping of old religious landscapes This migratory trend and development bring to the fore the crucial role functions and import of religious symbolic systems in new geo cultural contexts The trans national linkages between African led churches in the countries of origin Africa and the host societies are assuming increasing importance for African immigrants The links and networks that are established and maintained between these contexts are of immense religious cultural economic political and social importance This suggests how African Christianities can be understood within processes of religious transnationalism and African modernity Based on extensive religious ethnography undertaken by the author among African Christian communities in Europe the USA and Africa in the last 17 years this book maps and describes the incipience and consolidation of new brands of African Christianities in diaspora The book demonstrates how African Christianities are negotiating and assimilating notions of the global while maintaining their local identities A Guide to Studying and Living in Britain Kris Rao, 2014-02-21 Every year more than 270 000 students from all around the world come to study in the UK and the number is growing by 10 per cent a year At present most students coming to the UK have to rely on information from their friends and brief leaflets and booklets supplied by universities This indispensable guide tells students all they need to know about Britain s higher education system the application process funding immigration controls health service accommodation study methods and employment opportunities as well as university life British customs and habits and lots of other information on day to day living in the UK

Nigeria Lizzie Williams, Mark Shenley, 2012 This updated edition guides you through this unique country and provides a comprehensive insight into what makes Africa s most populous country tick Joy Comes in the Morning Tara Talabi, 2022-09-27 The police car appeared within a few minutes and a lady officer got out She asked me to get in I refused I asked her where my husband was She said she didn t know and that she and her partner had just been instructed to pick me up I asked her point blank Is my husband alive Tara was blissfully married to the love of her life Tope They had a son and were expecting their second child early in the New Year Life was great but suddenly life dealt a nasty hand tragedy struck dark clouds came in and covered the sunshine and life took on the hue of a dull and rainy day Tara found herself wondering whether the sun would ever shine again Immigration Control Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee, 2006-07-23 This is the report of an inquiry into the policy and practice of immigration control examining entry clearance visa system the granting or refusing of further leave in the UK and the enforcement of immigration control It considered the degree to which the aims of the Immigration and Nationality Directorate and UK visas are being met the progress in implementing recommendations from recent reports and lessons to be learnt from the operation of the current system Although it is recognised that staff are working hard and diligently there are a number of problems especially related to fragmentation and lack of communication The Committee make a number of recommendations including the establishment of a Cabinet Committee and an Independent Immigration Inspectorate a redrafting of the Immigration Rules and a greater focus on the quality of decision making as opposed to speed Human Trafficking Sasha Jespersen, Rune

Henriksen, Anne-Marie Barry, Michael Jones, 2019-11-01 Human trafficking brings to mind gangsters forcing people often women and girls to engage in dangerous activities against their will under threat of violence However human trafficking is not limited to the sex trade and this picture is inadequate It occurs in many different industries domestic service construction factory labour on farms and fishing boats and targets people from all over the globe Human trafficking is a much more complicated and nuanced picture than its common representations Victims move through multiple categories along their journey and at their destination shifting from smuggled migrant to trafficking victim and back again several times The emergence of a criminal pyramid scheme also makes many victims complicit in their own exploitation Finally the threat posed by the involvement of organised crime is little understood The profit motives and violence that come with such crime make human trafficking more dangerous for its victims and difficult to detect or address Drawing on field research in source transit and destination countries the authors analyse trafficking from four countries Albania Eritrea Nigeria and Vietnam What emerges is a business model that evolves in response to changes in legislation governance and law enforcement capacities UK Borderscapes Kahina Le Louvier, Karen Latricia Hough, 2023-09-04 This book analyses bordering practices and their negative effects as well as the many creative and often grassroots ways in which borders are resisted and reinvented From the hostile environment to Brexit and the Nationality and Borders Bill the UK border regime has become increasingly strict and complex operating both at the edge of the state and within everyday life in unprecedented ways At the same time this securitisation approach is often contested and its effects are fought daily by many groups and individuals This book explores this tension documenting and analysing how the contemporary UK border is imagined constructed deconstructed and reconstructed in multiple ways To draw together the different pieces that compose this evolving and conflicting landscape this book uses the concept of borderscapes which views borders as sites of multiple tensions between hegemonic non hegemonic and counter hegemonic imaginaries and practices This lens enables contributors to draw a multifocal overview of the UK border that includes the different human and material actors that form it the spaces and practices they shape and the imaginaries and counter imaginaries that emerge from their conflictual encounters Bringing together contributions by researchers from a variety of disciplines this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of migration and border studies refugee studies human geography criminology sociology and anthropology

Bilateral Cooperation and Human Trafficking May Ikeora, 2017-12-19 This book presents a case study of human trafficking from Nigeria to the UK with a focus on practical measures for ending this trafficking The study addresses the many aspects of human trafficking including sexual exploitation domestic servitude labor exploitation benefit fraud and organ harvesting Despite the huge investment of the international community to eradicate it this form of modern day slavery continues and the author urges stakeholders to focus not only on criminals but also on attitudes cultures laws and policies that hinder the eradication of modern slavery

Immigration Law 2018 Kevin Browne, 2018-01-22 Immigration Law is a straightforward up to date and practical introduction to this changing area of law

Cultural Nostalgias Merry Osemwegie, 2014 This is a narrative account of the lived experiences of an immigrant In many ways this book discusses a range of issues that transcend different sociocultural philosophical and political terrains Paved with comical and simple narrative the author located poignant and challenging issues within personal experiences of orphanhood racism race and sex acculturation deculturation immigration and his nostalgic feelings Reflectively he recalled how his early years in Africa were filled with happy memories of his parents and siblings and his lifelong regret over his failure to adequately care for his father From a child who hated education to someone with five degrees he has had to face many challenges including his unstoppable desire to acquire academic qualifications which oftentimes offered him no significant professional and material gains in return The author is living a life in the UK that millions of people would envy and yet he is troubled by cultural nostalgias For a man who did everything to leave Africa he could neither come to terms with why he could not just move back to Africa where his heart is nor is he able to make up his mind about where he would like to be buried

Contextualizing English for Academic Purposes in Higher Education Ian Bruce, Bee Bond, 2022-07-28 This book highlights the centrality of political and ideological issues as they relate to the positioning and practice of English for Academic Purposes EAP demonstrating that EAP cannot flourish as a profession or a discipline without an awareness of the macro and meso level political shifts that impact the wider university The volume states that the practices of EAP are in fact political acts and examines these as yet unexplored power dynamics The volume begins by considering key influences that have shaped universities and their governance and management over the last three decades and how these relate to the role and practice of EAP These influences include neoliberal economic policies governmental demands for widening participation globalization entrepreneurial approaches to higher education students as clients and therapeutism in universities Following consideration of these broader contextual issues specific chapters focus on politics and policies surrounding the recruitment and participation of international fee paying students their positioning and identity within English medium universities including issues relating to English language standards and academic integrity Further chapters then consider more local influences that shape EAP programmes such as their strategic roles within universities their management their teaching and wider academic impact

Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2011-03-25 This report from the Home Affairs Select Committee cautions the Government against introducing measures which could damage the UK's thriving educational export sector. The Committee remains concerned that a number of the Government proposals could have serious unintended consequences. International students make up 10% of first degree students and over 40% of postgraduate students at UK universities. The international student market estimated to be worth 40 billion to the UK economy is a significant growth market and the UK is the second most popular destination in the world for international students. The Committee's findings include the importance of the Post Study Work route in attracting students to the UK and disagrees with the Government proposal to close it. It suggests alternatives to the Government's proposals on language requirements specifically a permanent change to the parameters of the student visitor visa so that it can be used as a viable route for all of those attending pre degree programmes. It supports the Government's proposals to tighten the accreditation of language schools but is concerned that Government approval of the current accreditation bodies has lapsed. The Committee calls for a single streamlined accreditation system and agrees that any cap on student visas is unnecessary and undesirable. The Committee also notes that progress has been made on closing down bogus language schools and supports the Government's intention to crack down on bogus colleges and bogus students but it is not persuaded that students are migrants as defined by the UN and suggests that students ought to be excluded from net migration numbers. The Committee also raises concerns that the data used in assessing migration figures are not fit for purpose and could inhibit effective policy making. Military Migrants V. Ware,2012-10-15 This is the first book to examine migrant soldiers in the British army and places the phenomenon of Britain's multicultural army in relation to British culture history and nationalism. It also explores the impact of war on UK society during the 21st Century. Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1986-04 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security. Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world. Federal Register ,2013-04 International Migration Outlook 2022 OECD,2022-10-10 The 2022 edition of International Migration Outlook analyses recent developments in migration movements and the labour market inclusion of immigrants in OECD countries. It also monitors recent policy changes in migration governance and integration in OECD countries.
