Corporate Management for Church Leaders and Executives Ado .T. Noma,2014-02-13 The perception about Church administration and management revolves around managing various weekly activities of the Church. Some Churches have problems and opportunities that present fundamental dilemmas in corporate management and decisions. For example, managing a Church Department or the Church corporate headquarters is even more complex. Consequently, people understand that most leaders in the Church are amateurs in corporate management because they often fall short of applying standard principles in managing resources. To improve their managerial competencies, this book provides holistic knowledge which aims at developing skills in corporate management in an Evangelical Church context.

I Don't Know What I Want, But I Know It's Not This Julie Jansen, 2003-01-28. The quintessential guide to kick starting your career now updated to address the challenges of today's economy. With our current economic situation more people are unemployed now than at any other time in recent history and many who do have jobs are overworked, maxed out and miserable. In this revised and updated edition of I Don't Know What I Want But I Know It's Not This, career coach Julie Jansen shows how anyone unhappy with their employment or lack of can implement a real and satisfying career transformation. A range of quizzes and personality exercises help readers to identify the type of work for which they're best suited and then Jansen shows them how to transform this uncertain time from a period of crisis into an opportunity for positive change.
