Monetary Policy in Sub-Saharan Africa Andrew Berg, Rafael

Portillo, 2018-02-23 Low income countries in sub Saharan Africa present unique monetary policy challenges from the high share of volatile food in consumption to underdeveloped financial markets however most academic and policy work on monetary policy is aimed at much richer countries Can economic models and methods invented for rich countries even be adapted and applied here How does and should monetary policy work in sub Saharan African Monetary Policy in Sub Saharan Africa answers these questions and provides practical tools and policy guidance to respond to the complex challenges of this region Most countries in sub Saharan Africa have made great progress in stabilizing inflation over the past two decades As they have achieved a degree of basic macroeconomic stability policymakers are looking to avoid policy misalignments and respond appropriately to shocks in order to achieve stability and growth Officially they often have adopted money targeting frameworks a regime that has long disappeared from almost all advanced and even emerging market discussions In practice though they are in many cases finding current regimes lacking with opaque and sometimes inconsistent objectives inadequate transmission of policy to the economy and difficulties in responding to supply shocks Monetary Policy in Sub Saharan Africa takes a new approach by applying dynamic general equilibrium models suitably adapted to reflect key features of low income countries for the analysis of monetary policy in sub Saharan African countries Using a progressive approach derived from the International Monetary Fund's extensive practice and research Monetary Policy in Sub Saharan Africa seeks to address what we know about the empirics of monetary transmission in low income countries how monetary policy can work in countries characterized by underdeveloped financial markets and opaque policy regimes and how we can use empirical and theoretical methods largely derived in advanced countries to answer these questions It then uses these key topics to guide policymakers as they attempt to adjust food price terms of trade aid shocks and the effects of the global financial crisis

Varieties of Opposition to Gender Equality in Europe Mieke

Verloo, 2018-03-09 In contrast to the wealth of studies on progress towards gender equality opposition to gender equality is rarely studied which makes it difficult to understand the positive and negative dynamics of gender equality as a political project The first of its kind this timely collection examines the potential and challenges of our current scholarship on understanding opposition to gender equality in Europe Divided into three parts Mieke Verloo and her team of international experts begin Varieties of Opposition to Gender Equality in Europe by theorizing the dynamics of opposition to gender equality policies in Europe Part Two highlights oppositional actors politicians governments citizens policy makers churches and political arenas parliament courts Internet as well as different and opposing visions of gender equality Part Three concludes with a framework for understanding oppositional dynamics on gender equality change Setting the agenda for future research this book will be useful for students of gender and politics social movements European integration and policy studies as well as for high level policymakers students and feminist activists alike It will be an inspiration to thinkers and doers and to scholars and political actors Confronting the Myth of Soft Power in U.S. Foreign Policy Brent A. Lawnczak, 2022-03-31 The concept of soft power has caught the attention of policymakers scholars and political pundits for the last thirty years Soft power studies most often focus on measures of public opinion toward a power wielder and draw conclusions about a state s level of soft power from that opinion This research examines soft power influence by focusing on the elite discourse and the foreign policy decisions of states that are the target of soft power influence Beginning with Joseph Nye s conception that soft power is an attractive force that influences state policy decisions and its level of support for another state s policies Confronting the Myth of Soft Power in U S Foreign Policy examines whether U S soft power was part of key policymakers decision calculus Soft power is tested against two plausible alternate explanations balancing and state identity Data from the discourse of key foreign policymakers in France and Germany indicate that U S soft power does not account for those states policy decisions to support U S led policy interventions in Kosovo in 1999 or against ISIS in 2014 The results of this research are suggestive regarding the potential of soft power influence and its implications on scholarship and U S foreign policymaking Assassination Classroom, Vol. 13 Yusei Matsui, 2016-12-06 The Grim Reaper sets up a lethal trap that buries Mr Karasuma and Ms Vitch alive Will Mr Karasuma s repressed feelings surface before he and Ms Vitch do And how will Mr Karasuma face Death Then despite his vow to destroy the planet in March Koro Sensei offers career counseling to his students Nagisa s professional goal raises some serious issues And finally it s time for the next school festival showdown Class A and Class E compete for the most customers If they build it will they come to the top of 3 E s remote mountaintop VIZ Media Political Handbook of the World 2018-2019 Tom Lansford, 2019-03-19 The Political Handbook of the World provides timely thorough and accurate political information with more in depth coverage of current political controversies than any other reference guide The updated 2018 2019 edition will continue to be the most authoritative source for finding complete facts and analysis on each country s governmental and political makeup Compiling in one place more than 200 entries on countries and territories throughout the world this volume is renowned for its extensive coverage of all major and minor political parties and groups in each political system It also provides names of key ambassadors and international memberships of each country plus detailed profiles of more than 30 intergovernmental organizations and UN agencies This comprehensive update will include coverage of current events issues crises and controversies from the course of the last two years including Elections across Europe Referendum in Ireland Rohingya genocide in Myanmar The Venezuelan dictatorship The renaming of Swaziland to eSwatini Qatar diplomacy changes Historic meeting between the United States and North Korea Establishment of a new governing coalition in Liberia
