The Making of Détente Wilfried Loth, George Soutou, 2010-04-05 Containing essays by leading Cold War scholars such as Wilfried Loth Geir Lundestad and Seppo Hentil this volume offers a broad ranging examination of the history of détente in the Cold War The ten years from 1965 to 1975 marked a deep transformation of the bipolar international system of the Cold War The Vietnam War and the Prague Spring showed the limits of the two superpowers who were constrained to embark on a wide ranging détente policy which culminated with the SALT agreements of 1972 At the same time this very détente opened new venues for the European countries French policy towards the USSR and the German Ostpolitik being the most evident cases in point For the first time since the 1950s Western Europe began to participate in the shaping of the Cold War The same could not be said of Eastern Europe but ferment began to establish themselves there which would ultimately lead to the astounding changes of 1989-90 the Prague Spring the uprisings in Gdansk in 1970 and generally the rise of the dissident movement That last process being directly linked to the far reaching event which marked the end of that momentous decade the Helsinki conference The Making of Détente will appeal to students of the Cold War international history and European contemporary history

A History of Franco-German Relations in Europe C. Germond, H. Türk, 2008-11-10 This book surveys Franco-German relations from the French Revolution to the 1990s collecting the most current research from area specialists

Building Europe Wilfried Loth, 2015-08-31 Relying on internal sources Wilfried Loth analyses the birth and subsequent development of the European Union from the launch of the Council of Europe and the Schuman Declaration until the Euro crisis and the contested European presidential election of Jean-Claude Juncker This book shines a light on the crises of the European integration such as the failure of the European Defence Community De Gaulle's empty chair policy or the rejection of the European Constitution in France and the Netherlands but also highlights the indubitable successes that are the Franco-German reconciliation the establishment of the European common market and the establishment of an expanding common currency What this study accomplishes for the first time is to illuminate the driving forces behind the European integration process and how it changed European politics and society An enlightening work A required reading for all who doubt the unfinished history of Europe

Tir à vue Jean-Jérôme Bertolus, Frédérique Bredin, 2011-11-09 Il faut vingt ans pour un faire un bon candidat vingt ans de souffrance de malheur de chocs et de obsessions observait François Mitterrand Une présidentielle est un combat sans merci Le temps la patience la revanche l'obsession la trahison sont les clés qui ouvrent les portes de l'Elysée Un bon candidat est d'abord un homme prêt à tous les sacrifices 2012 sera la neuvième leçon présidentielle au suffrage universel depuis 1965 A travers les candidatures des grands fauves de la politique comme François Mitterrand Valéry Giscard d'Estaing Jacques Chirac et Nicolas Sarkozy les tentatives avortées de Jacques Delors Michel Rocard Raymond Barre ou Edouard Balladur ce livre revient sur 50 ans d'histoire politique de destins d'airains de coups tordus d'intuitions géniales Il restitue les campagnes et ses rites l'importance de l'entourage et les secrets de famille l'enjeu et la préparation du duel télévisé la forme physique et psychologique du candidat les interrogations liées au financement la prégnance de la communication Ce livre a nécessité près de deux ans d'enquête Les auteurs ont rencontré près de 80 personnalités de Valéry Giscard d'Estaing à Lionel Jospin en passant par Valéry Giscard d'Estaing Jacques Seguela Jean Pierre Raffarin ou encore Alain Pompidou

Elitism, Populism, and European Politics Jack Hayward, 1996-03-28 In the 1990s there has been an increasingly widespread sense that the governing elites are losing touch with their peoples leaders are no longer able to count upon the acquiescence of their citizens to which they were accustomed The disenchantment has resulted in the loss of public support for the political institutions of both the individual European nation states and of the European Union Taking elitism and populism as the opposite poles between which the political leaders need to steer the contributors successively consider why there appears to have been a degeneration in the quality of elite leaders with civil societies turning against their governments and the elite mediators between the powerless and the powerful The agenda setting role of the media the rival appeals to representation and referendum the problems encountered by political parties and organised interests and the tensions between public demand and economic constraints are all discussed The chapters suggest that the need to lead from the front rather than from behind remains indispensable in elitist democracies Historiens et géographes, 2008
