Scope Magazine March 2014:

New Realism David Forrest, 2020-03-18 The tradition of British realism has changed dramatically over the last 20 years where films by directors such as Duane Hopkins Joanna Hogg Andrea Arnold Shane Meadows and Clio Barnard have suggested a markedly poetic turn This new realism rejects the instrumentalism and didacticism of filmmakers like Ken Loach in favour of lyrical and often ambiguous encounters with place where the physical processes of lived experience interacts with the rhythms of everyday life Taking these 5 filmmakers as case studies this book seeks to explore in depth this new tradition of British cinema and in the process it reignites debates over realism that have concerned scholars for decades

The Sublimity of Document Scott MacDonald, 2019 The Sublimity of Document Cinema as Diorama is a collection of in depth substantive interviews with moving image artists working avant doc that is making films that explore the territory between documentary and experimental cinema The book uses the early history of the museum habitat diorama of animal life specifically the Hall of African Mammals at the American Museum of Natural History as a way of rethinking both early and modern cinema document and especially those recent filmmakers and films that are devoted to providing viewers with panoramic documentations of places and events that otherwise they might never have opportunities to experience in person This international collection of 27 interviews follows on MacDonald s earlier Avant Doc Intersections of Documentary and Avant Garde Cinema Oxford 2015 The interviews organized panoramically within the collection are dense with information and insight and readable by specialists and non specialists alike In most instances these are the most in depth and expansive sometimes the first interviews with these filmmakers Together these interviews offer an engaging panorama of the recent history and geography of cinema devoted to documenting the world around us as well as an in depth look at the challenges and accomplishments of filmmakers willing to go anywhere on the planet or on the internet to document what they believe we need to see MacDonald s general introduction provides an overall context for the collection which includes interviews with Ron Fricke Gustav Deutsch Laura Poitras Fred Wiseman Nikolaus Geyrhalter Bill Morrison Brett Story Abbas Kiarostami Lois Pati o Dominic Gagnon Erin Espelie Yance Ford Janet Biggs Carlos Adriano Craig Johnson Ben Russell Betzy Bromberg James Benning Maxim Pozdorovkin along with several veterans of Harvard s Sensory Ethnography Lab and with the executive directors of the distributor Documentary Educational Resources which has served the field of independent documentary for nearly fifty years each interview is introduced with MacDonald s overview of the interviewee s life and work The book includes filmographies and selected bibliographies for all the filmmakers Vivre Ici Alison J. Murray Levine, 2018-03-19 Vivre Ici analyzes a diverse selection of contemporary French documentaries about spaces and places in France Integrating film theory eco criticism and cultural history Levine investigates documentary cinema as experience The book reveals a collage like fragmented vision of France as seen through documentary cameras and explores the social and political consequences of these films that matter The Hardest Job in the World John Dickerson, 2021-03-23 NEW YORK

Coleman, Steve Gronert Ellerhoff, 2017-03-25 This timely volume explores the signal contribution George Saunders has made to the development of the short story form in books ranging from CivilWarLand in Bad Decline 1996 to Tenth of December 2013 The book brings together a team of scholars from around the world to explore topics ranging from Saunders's treatment of work and religion to biopolitics and the limits of the short story form It also includes an interview with Saunders specially conducted for the volume and a preliminary bibliography of his published works and critical responses to an expanding and always exciting creative oeuvre Coinciding with the release of the Saunders first novel Lincoln in the Bardo 2017 George Saunders Critical Essays is the first book length consideration of a major contemporary author's work It is essential reading for anyone interested in twenty first century fiction

Media Today Joseph Turow, 2016-10-04 Media Today uses convergence as a lens that puts students at the center of the profound changes in the 21st century media world Through the convergence lens they learn to think critically about the role of media today and what these changes mean for their lives presently and in the future The book's media systems approach helps students to look carefully at how media content is created distributed and exhibited in the new world that the digital revolution has created From newspapers to video games and social networking to mobile platforms Media Today prepares students to live in the digital world of media

Popular Memories of the Mao Era Sebastian Veg, 2019-01-10 The present volume provides an overview of new forms of popular memory in particular critical memory of the Mao era Focusing on the processes of private production public dissemination and social sanctioning of narratives of the past in contemporary China it examines the relation between popular memories and their social construction as historical knowledge The three parts of the book are devoted to the shifting boundary between private and public in the press and media the reconfiguration of elite and popular discourses in cultural productions film visual art and literature and the emergence of new discourses of knowledge through innovative readings of unofficial sources Popular memories pose a challenge to the existing historiography of the first thirty years of the People's Republic of China Despite the recent backlash these more critical reflections are beginning to transform the mainstream narrative of the Mao era in China Public discussions of key episodes in the history of the People's Republic in particular the Anti Rightist Movement of 1957 the Great Famine of 1959 1961 and the Cultural Revolution have proliferated in the last fifteen years These discussions are qualitatively different from previous expressions of traumatic or nostalgic memories of Mao in the 1980s and the 1990s respectively They reflect a growing dissatisfaction with the authoritarian control over history exercised by the Chinese state and often they make use of the new spaces provided for counter hegemonic narratives by social media and the growing private economy in the 2000s Unofficial or independent journals self published books social media groups independent documentary films private museums oral history projects and archival research by amateur historians all of which analyzed in this collection have contributed to these embryonic public or semi public dialogues An excellent guide to the independent journalism cultural production and amateur histories that are transforming the mainstream narrative of the Mao era in China Rich in detail and sound in analysis these studies document the emergence of critical memory in Chinese society A valuable resource for students and scholars Timothy Cheek University of British Columbia author of The Intellectual in Modern Chinese History Popular memories of the Mao era are signposts of contemporary politics and culture This volume features exciting new research by distinguished scholars Extremely rich and readable the chapters in this collection illuminate both China s past and present A timely and important contribution Guobin Yang University of Pennsylvania author of The Red Guard Generation and Political Activism in China

Late Modernism and 'The English Intelligencer' Alex Latter, 2015-06-18 Despite the brevity of its run and the diminutive size of its audience The English Intelligencer is a key publication in the history of literary modernism in the British Isles Emerging in the mid 1960s from a dissatisfaction with the prevailing norms of Betjeman s England the young writers associated with it were catalysed by the example of Donald Allen s The New American Poetry as they sought to establish a revitalised modernist poetics Late Modernism and The English Intelligencer gives the first full account of the extraordinary history of this publication bringing to light extensive new archival material to establish an authoritative contextualisation of its operation and its relationship with post war British poetry This material provides compelling new insights into the work of the Intelligencer poets themselves and more broadly the continued presence of an international poetic modernism as a vital force in Britain in the second half of the twentieth century Fibre2Fashion - Textile Magazine - March 2017

To Speak the Truth in Love Schenk, CSJ, Christine , 2019-11-21 Through the story of Sister Theresa Kane this book documents an important period of contemporary Catholic history It is a period in which Theresa and so many of her sisters in her own and other communities exercised unparalleled leadership in the Catholic Church They did so by speaking truth to power with love wisdom and grace

Fighting Terrorism Tereza Krauzová, Stanislav Matějka , 2018-09-01 The war on terror launched by the 9 11 terrorist attacks has been waged inside as well as outside the U S borders Perception of threat and efforts to ensure national security have led the United States to major reforms in its national security policy involving new military security and legislative concepts On the level of waging war outside the U S borders the United States has introduced the system of Unmanned Aerial vehicles UAVs autonomous aircrafts without human pilot aboard opening the possibility of highly effective computer game like targeted killing On the domestic level new pieces of legislation and other antiterrorism measures have been raising privacy awareness and concerns whether the U S government keeps observing the Constitution Nowadays as advanced technology offers wide range of possibilities how to intrude one s privacy and effectively kill people legal and ethical considerations have to catch up the reality This work therefore seeks to elaborate on the statutory and constitutional framework of the current U S surveillance measures as well as the limits of utilization of UAVs Islamophobia in Cyberspace Imran Awan,2016-03-02 Cyber hate can take many different forms from online material which can lead to actual offline abuse and violence cyber violence cyber stalking and online harassment with the use of visual images videos chat rooms text and social media which are intended to cause harm This book examines the case for current guidelines dealing with online anti Muslim abuse and concludes that we require a new understanding of this online behaviour and the impact it can have on vulnerable communities It is unique as it focuses on new technology in the form of social media and the Internet and explores the challenges the police and other agencies face when confronting anti Muslim abuse in cyberspace It also provides a critique of how people are targeted by online offenders and helps us understand online anti Muslim behaviour in a much more detailed and comprehensive way by bringing together a range of experts who will examine this phenomenon and critically discuss why they think it has become so much more prevalent than it was before The Origins and Dynamics of Inequality Jon D. Wisman,2022-05-24 Argues that the struggle over income wealth status and privilege inequality has been the principal defining issue in human history and provides a novel framework for understanding inequality today Whereas President Barack Obama declared inequality as the defining issue of our time in The Origins and Dynamics of Inequality Jon D Wisman claims more it is the defining issue of all human history The struggle over inequality has been the underlying force driving human history s unfolding Drawing on the dynamics of inequality Wisman re interprets economic history and society Beyond according inequality the central role in history this book is novel in two other respects First transcending the general failure of social scientists and historians to anchor their work in explicit theories of human behaviour this book grounds the origins and dynamics of inequality in evolutionary psychology or more specifically Darwin s theory of sexual selection Second this book accords central importance to ideology in legitimating inequality a role typically inadequately addressed by social scientists and historians Because of the central role of inequality in history inequality s explosion over the past forty years has not been an anomaly It is a return to the political dynamics by which elites have since the rise of the state taken practically everything for themselves leaving all others with little more than the means with which to survive Due to elites persuasive ideology even after workers in advanced capitalist countries gained the franchise to become the overwhelming majority of voters inequality continued to increase Sweeping and provocative Jon D Wisman presents a fresh perspective on why economic inequality exists and how its dynamics have shaped human history

what is the difference between a polar molecule and polar bond - May 12 2023

web dec 2 2016 a polar bond is one where the charge distribution between the two atoms in the bond is unequal a polar molecule is one where the charge distribution around the molecule is not symmetric it results from having polar bonds and also a molecular structure where the bond polarities do not cancel

8 4 polar bonds and molecules flashcards quizlet - Jun 01 2022

web when the atoms in a bond are not the same the bonding electrons are shared and the bond is electronegativities equally unequally non polar polar unequally polar the degree of polarity of a bond between any two atoms is determined by consulting a table of chemical bonds chemistry of life biology article khan academy - Jul 02 2022

web chemical bonds hold molecules together and create temporary connections that are essential to life types of chemical bonds including covalent ionic and hydrogen bonds and london dispersion forces introduction living things are made up of atoms but in most cases those atoms aren't just floating around individually
