Scoring Guide Tiggs:

The Assessment and Treatment of Older Adults Lee Hyer, 2019-10-04 Grounded in extensive research this book outlines a deliberative process in the psychosocial care of older adults both in terms of assessment and treatment It is a clinical undertaking with academic emphasis on the real life needs of older adults and even considers current meta trends of health The world of aging has changed Data now clearly suggest that older age is replete with exciting complexities that can be unpacked and changed Specifically the book articulates a Watch and Wait model of care espousing a plan for the modal problems of later life Five domains are presented as a sufficient understanding of a case general health cognition depression anxiety and life adjustment Importantly assessment is considered first in each domain and a profile for each patient is provided as a result The text also discusses the role of personality in later life Empirically supported interventions are then provided in each area This book is intended for health care professionals as well as academics who work with this population Older age is changing and a newer model of care is necessary

Palliative Care Nursing Marianne Matzo, Marianne L. Matzo, Deborah Witt Sherman, 2018-06-28 This 5th edition is an important achievement it is a symbol of commitment to the field of palliative nursing where we have been and where we are going Betty Rolling Ferrell PhD MA FAAN FPCN CHPN From the Foreword The aging population has only grown since the first edition of this comprehensive and seminal publication nearly 20 years ago Based on the need to humanize rather than medicalize the illness experience for patients this text delves into palliative care beyond the specific diseases affecting the patient Instead content focuses on the whole person and family Palliative patients struggle with chronic debilitating and painful conditions and grapple with the fact that life as they knew it has already passed away Families and friends reciprocally suffer not knowing how to help and therefore become the secondary victims of the disease This is not the challenge of a lone nurse or a single physician therapist or social worker Rather palliative and hospice care requires the expertise and unique roles of an interprofessional team to help the patient and family strengthen their resilience continue to find meaning and purpose in life and cure what can be cured Palliative Care Nursing Fifth Edition delivers advanced empirical aesthetic ethical and personal knowledge This new edition brings an increased focus on outcomes benchmarking progress and goals of care It expounds upon the importance of the cross disciplinary collaboration introduced in the previous edition Every chapter in Sections I II and III includes content written by a non nursing member of the interprofessional team Based on best evidence and clinical practice guidelines this text presents comprehensive targeted interventions responsive to the needs of palliative and hospice patients and family Each chapter contains compassionate timely appropriate and cost effective care for diverse populations across the illness trajectory Key Features The expanded new edition offers current comprehensive one stop source of highly relevant clinical information on palliative care Life span approach age appropriate nursing considerations e g geriatric pediatric and family Includes disease specific and symptom specific nursing management chapters Promotes a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to palliative care Offers important legal ethical and cultural considerations related to death and dying Case Studies with Case Study Conclusion in each clinical chapter New to The Fifth Edition An expanded chapter on Palliative Care incorporates most up to date scope and standards information on Basic and Advanced HPNA certification self reflection and self care for nurses A chapter on Interprofessional Collaboration Instructor Resources Power points and Test bank

Palliative Care Nursing Deborah Witt Sherman, 2010 This textbook has introduced concepts and methods of education which help to move palliative nursing forward as an evidenced based practice of whole person care Betty Ferrell PhD FAAN Research Scientist From the Foreword In this comprehensive textbook on palliative care nursing editors Marianne Matzo and Deborah Witt Sherman succeed in bringing together the heart of nursing and the true meaning of palliative care with the most current evidence based practice GeriPal Palliative care is a philosophy of caregiving that integrates disease modification with supportive compassionate therapies for patients at the end of life Palliative care nurses are responsible for alleviating pain and other physical symptoms along with satisfying the emotional social cultural and spiritual needs of patients who are facing life threatening illness This third edition of Palliative Care Nursing provides more comprehensive newly updated content knowledge attitudes skills and cutting edge teaching and learning strategies to achieve the AACN End of Life nursing competencies providing a lifespan approach Now in its third edition this book continues to emphasize the value of complementary holistic modalities in promoting health wholeness and wellness even as death approaches Key topics discussed Ethical aspects of palliative care Legal aspects of end of life decision making Loss suffering grief and bereavement on the part of patients and their families Symptom specific nursing management of pain anxiety depression fatigue malnutrition and dehydration all common to palliative care How to communicate with the seriously ill and dying patients their families and their health care providers Disease specific aspects of palliative care for those battling cancer heart disease lung disease HIV AIDS end stage renal and liver disease neurological and other disorders
